City Building Sets All-Time Record Here

Total Valuation Roars Past $15-Million Mark

City building department officials today closed the books on the biggest building year in Palm Springs history.

Total construction value for 1959 was $15,452,429 for 1,617 buildings, eclipsing the previous record of $13,939,434, set in 1956, building clerk Barbara Bruton reported today.

IRONICALLY, THE city's biggest building year ended with the lowest month of construction values for 1959. The month of December saw only $777,537 worth of new construction.

But it was, on the whole, a big year for Palm Springs. Big construction values on big buildings — like $1,406,000 for the new Riviera Hotel — marked the pages of city building department records through the months of 1959. All told, resort construction men built 703 dwelling units, including homes and apartment units, valued at $9,213,000. They also erected 27 new commercial buildings, worth $1,452,000, and 386 new swimming pools, valued at $1,312,000.

PALM SPRINGS now lays claim to 2,148 private and hotel-type pools, firmly establishing the resort as the world's swimmingest city with one pool for every six residents (based on an unofficial permanent, year-around population count of 13,000).

April was the city's biggest month with $2,848,650 worth of new construction. In addition to the Riviera Hotel, the year's biggest individual building permits were issued for the new Palm Springs Spa, $500,000; Ray Ryan's new bowling alley, $200,000; the new Latter Day Saints Church, $250,000; the Racquet Club's new cottages, $200,000, and Garner Development Corporation's new South Palm Canyon Drive commercial building, $200,000.

ALTHOUGH the 1959 building year far overshadowed 1958, with a scant $12,941,650, the last month of the previous year registered almost twice the building activity of this December, with $1,068,246 worth of building permits.

'SUN' PUBLISHER GIVES GREETING; PAPER SATURDAY

Expressing best wishes for the New Year on behalf of all Desert Sun employees, Sun Publisher Ward J. Risvold today reminded subscribers that The Desert Sun will not be published tomorrow, New Year's Day.

For Last Decade

'Sputniks' Rated Top News Story

NEW YORK (AP) — "Sputniks" — their implications to mankind and what they portend in the opening of the space age — constituted the top news story of the decade, according to a poll of executives and editors of United Press International.

Running a very close second was the story that opened the decade: Communist invasion of Korea and the historic decision for U.N. intervention.

THIRD WAS the 1953 death of Stalin marking a new alignment of power in the Kremlin and the first signs of thaw in the cold war.

'SUN' CHRISTMAS STORY NETS HOMES FOR 50 POCHES

RANCHO MIRAGE — As a result of a news story in The Desert Sun the Desert Humane Society found homes for all of the dogs in the pounds at Palm Springs and Indio — 50 of them.

There are now some new inmates who are looking for homes, Mrs. Johannes Andersen society secretary, said today. Anyone interested in adopting any of the dogs is urged to contact Mrs. Andersen through the want ad under "Pets" in The Desert Sun.

At present the society has three water spaniel puppies, all black, and a cocker spaniel puppy and one fox terrier.

Red Leaders May Confer Before Summit

LONDON (UPI) — Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev may fly to Peiping for talks with Red China's leaders before the May 16 East-West summit meeting in Paris, Western diplomats speculated today.

The diplomats predicted that a meeting of the Communist bloc leaders might also be held before Khrushchev meets with President Eisenhower, British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan and French President Charles de Gaulle.

THE SPECULATION was based on the fact that Khrushchev will have nearly two months between his March 12-27 visit to Paris and the East-West summit meeting.

—He certainly would want to line up his summit plans with other Communist leaders.

WESTERN DIPLOMATS pointed out that a meeting between Khrushchev and satellite leaders could easily be held during the May Day celebrations in Moscow. Many of them will be in the Soviet capital then. Khrushchev gave the May Day celebrations as the reason for his rejection of the original April 27 date proposed for the summit.

Khrushchev did not visit Communist China before the first East-West summit meeting in Geneva in July of 1955. But he flew to Peiping in August of 1958 when he was planning for a summit meeting over the Middle East crisis.

Soviet Charge Is Retracted

MOSCOW (UPI) — Russia's leading nuclear-blast expert today effectively retracted the Soviet charge that the United States had been conducting underground nuclear tests.

Prof. E. K. Fedorov, chief Soviet delegate to the Geneva nuclear-test talks, said the U.S. underground blasts mentioned Wednesday by the Communist organ Pravda were "chemical explosions simulating nuclear explosions."

for the 1957 advent of Sputniks, one editor said: "Because it well could be the story of the century."

ANOTHER SAID: "Russian mastery of Sputnik technology was truly revolutionary as significant as the first A-bomb bursting over Hiroshima. It brought immediate political, military, and economic re-assessment throughout the world. It ushered in a new 'age.' The other nine stories merely were the fifties' version of stories long old in history."

Those polled were asked to select the one top story from a list of 10 "Story of the Year" choices made by UPI client newspapers and UPI editors in the 1950s.

Rose Parade Float Funds Still Needed

Three Choices Face Committee On Final Day

Palm Springs' float for the 71st Tournament of Roses at Pasadena tomorrow needs money, now.

Unless the needed funds are raised during today, the Palm Springs float will be minus the palm trees and oasis that make its entire theme meaningful, float committee workers revealed.

THE DISNEY - designed float will have to be shorn of this important design feature, unless the Village raises another $3,500 to meet a last-minute deficiency, float committee chairman Tony Cosentino, 1133 Pasatiempo Road, announced late yesterday.

Constructed at a contract cost of $10,000, the float has been financed by three functions this year: the Hat Parade luncheon at the Chi Chi; the West Coast premiere of "House of 7 Hawks" at the Plaza, followed by the champagne supper at the Desert Inn, and the benefit banquet at the Ranch Club Monday evening. These activities raised approximately $6,500.

CONSENTINO, though under doctor's care for a severe cold, conducted last-minute conferences late yesterday, when it became apparent the fund deficiency was heavy enough to endanger the appearance of the Palm Springs float. After phone conferences with the float contractor, three choices faced the float committee: remove a vital design portion of the float; raise $3,500 within 24 hours; pull the Village entry from the nationally televised pre-Rose Bowl parade.

DEB O'BRYNE REPLACES ILL DEB HOWARD

Lovely Palm Springs Deb Leeann Howard, who was to have been one of three Debs riding on the resort's Rose Parade float, will not appear because of illness.

Her place on the float will be taken by red-haired Sheila O'Bryne, also a Palm Springs High School senior and Deb.

Consentino is staying close to his home phone today, FA 5-2678, at 1133 Pasatiempo, making calls — and hoping for calls — that may develop the needed money.

The Palm Springs float design is built around the legend of the lost "Peg Leg" mine, with a dual theme of vanishing gold, and the continuing golden sunshine that makes Palm Springs the state's top winter resort.

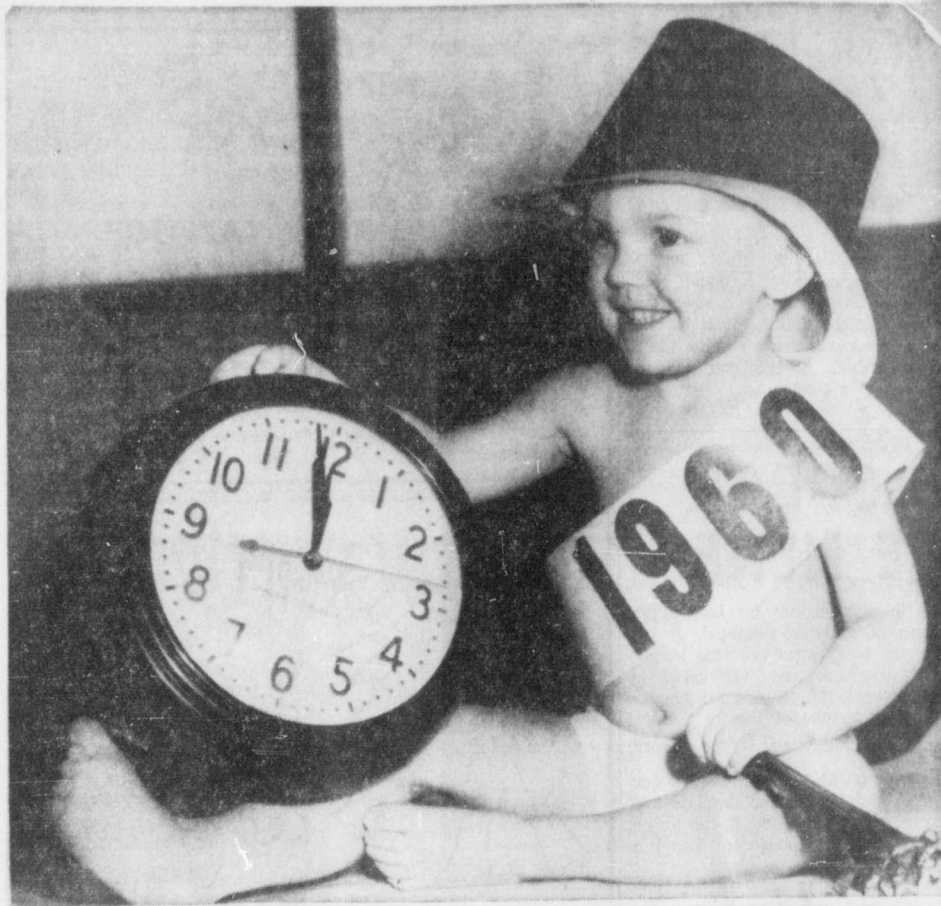

BEFORE THEM, the oasis that is Palm Springs — complete with palm trees and inviting green — should appear to round out the float theme.

Riding on the Village float will be Palm Springs Debs Leeann Howard, Mary Ann Roberts, and Jean Morrison. One girl will wear a tennis costume from the Racquet Club, one a swim suit from the Guys and Dolls Shop at the Ranch Club, and one a golfing outfit from Madelyn Fio Rito's shop on the Village green.

TOP LADY CALLERS SET FOR NEW YEAR EVE SQUARE DANCE

Two sisters prominent in square dance circles will call the New Year's Eve square dance to be held from 8:30 p.m. Thursday to 12:30 a.m. Friday at Nellie Coffman School, under the sponsorship of the city recreation department.

Mrs. Osa Mathews, program chairman for the Southern California Caller Association, and her sister, Mrs. Dorothy Ganger, Richmond, program chairman of the Northern California Caller Association, will call the dance.

LITTLE MR. 1960 cocks an eye at the clock and keeps his favorite horn in readiness for tonight's big blowout—the midnight farewell to 1959 and greeting for a new year. Armed Robbery Suspect Nabbed On Highway 74

PALM DESERT — An alleged armed robber who reportedly took $40 and an automobile from a man he met in a bar, was caught by Jim Henry, sheriff's deputy in Indio, shortly after the reported robbery, the sheriff's office in Indio disclosed today.

Deputy Henry picked up Earl James Shockley, 23, of 43-547, King Street, Indio, on Highway 74 at the Auto cutoff sometime after the alleged robbery occurred at 7 p.m., deputies said.

Shockley was scheduled for arraignment at 2 p.m. today in Indio justice court on a charge of armed robbery against Arlan Leon Bailey, 21, Post Office 15, Banning.

Bailey told deputies he met Shockley in a bar in Rancho Mirage, and that he was giving Shockley a ride to Indio when Shockley simulated a gun in his pocket, and took the $40 cash from Bailey.

Jewish Congress Attorney Here

Attorney Leo Pfeffer, national director of the American Jewish Congress' Commission on Law and Social Action will be guest speaker at Temple Isaiah, 332 West Aljo Road, at 8:15 p.m. Friday, Rabbi Joseph Hurwitz announced today.

Cantor Julius Blackman and the Temple Choir, directed by Harry Tomlinson, will participate in the service.

Forestry Antenna Downed by Wind

WHITEWATER — The two-way radio antenna of the state forestry service here was reported blown over in high winds early this morning.

GROVES GUILTY IN LICENSE CASE

A jury of five men and seven women yesterday returned a verdict of "guilty as charged" against Pink Palace owner William Edmond Groves, for violation of the city business license code — operating a business without a license.

The jury trial, which lasted almost the full day, was presided over by City Attorney Jerry Bunker. Groves was defended by attorney William O. Burt.

GROVES WILL BE sentenced in the same court — Palm Springs Justice Court — by Judge Eugene Theriault at 9:30 a.m., Monday. The maximum sentence called for under the law is a $500 fine or six months in jail, or both.

The jury was out only 18 minutes before returning the guilty verdict.

Hebert Bound to Superior Court

Burglary suspect Liney Hebert's trial was today extended to Indio Superior Court by Palm Springs Justice Court Judge Eugene Theriault.

Judge Theriault ordered the 36-year-old transient bound over to Superior Court for action on charges that Liney took $1,400 worth of jewels from the Tamarisk area home of Paul L. Lazar.

Lazar and Sheriff's Deputy Edw. Fisher nabbed Liney, his pockets filled with loot, at an abandoned homestead shack near Thousand Palms after they followed a 20-mile trail of footprints across the desert.

Ike to Announce Good Will Tour

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower is expected to announce shortly a good will trip to South America, possibly in mid-February. He may visit Brazil, Argentina, Chile and Uruguay.

Boy Joins Parents, Brother in Grave

INDIO — Thirteen-year-old Michael McClain was buried in Coachella Valley Cemetery this morning, next to the graves of his mother, father and brother, who died with him in the wind-swept waters of the Salton Sea. Graveside services were read this morning for the fourth and last member of the ill-fated family of Clarence McClain, 42, of Thermal.

McClain, a Southern Pacific Railroad employee, his wife, Helen, 36, sons Patrick, 7, and Michael, 13, perished when wind-whipped waves capsized their small boat Dec. 13.

The bodies of the parents and young Patrick were found by searchers a few days later. They were buried at Coachella Valley Cemetery that week.

Michael's body was found this Tuesday by Guy S. Cone, of Sausalito, who was boating on the sea.

Village Night Spots Set For Night of Fun-Making

Thousands of resort residents will join forces with near-record hordes of holiday visitors to greet the infant 1960 tonight with traditional revelry at scores of Village nightspots and private clubs.

Revelers are expected to cut a lively New Year's swath through an area ranging from Palm Springs' famed Chi Chi Starlite Room to the equally prominent confines of La Quinta's exclusive Desert Club.

BUT, WHILE THEY usher in the New Year with traditional, horn-blowing enthusiasm, well-wishers who bolster their spirits with alcoholic beverages were cautioned by law enforcement agencies to temper their activities with strong measures of common sense.

Full crews of Palm Springs police, California Highway Patrol officers and sheriff's deputies will concentrate on area streets and highways in a concerted attempt to forestall predicted highway carnage.

NEW YEAR'S EVE entertainment in the various resort nightclubs and clubs ranges from "big name" shows at the night spots to dinner-dance parties and piano-bar type music at the clubs and lounges.

Starting at the top of The Desert Sun's "Whose Where?" list, you'll find Bobby Ramos and his Orchestra, aided and abetted by violinist Harold Stern's trio, providing continuous music from 7 p.m. to the wee hours (2 a.m., that is).

AT THE CHI CHI, a star-studded New Year cast featuring Abbe Lane and Xavier Cugat, tightrope artists Evers and Dolores, comedian Paul Gilbert and Bill Alexander and his Orchestra will help revelers climax the old year and greet the new with Starlite Room shows at 8:45 and 11:45 p.m.

El Mirador Hotel has Billy Allen and his orchestra and Tex Kiddwell, the resort's favorite strolling cowboy singer, ready to offer continuous music from 7 p.m.

Charlie Barnett and his swinging Cherokees are planning to scalp old man 1959 as he exits the Saints and Sinners Room at La Paz Hotel. Barnett's redmen will be assisted by vocalist Lynn Franklin.

OVER AT THE DOLL House, those Guadalupe Muchachos are tuning up for continuous music from 9 p.m. on.

Meanwhile, at the other end of Palm Canyon Drive, singer Bobby Adano and mariachis Raoul and Gustavo will spark holiday revelry at the Hilltop Room.

At the Howard Manor in midtown Palm Springs, Lewis and Sanchez, their multi-drums and piano, will alternate with Vin Riley and Françoise to dish up a wide variety of festive music after 4:30 p.m. Murray Arnold and his Orchestra open tonight at the Manor.

DAVE BURTON AND his Burton Boys, augmented by Tony Anthony at the piano keyboard, are scheduled to help deliver a thumping New Year at the Biltmore Hotel, from 9 p.m.

Whispering Waters over Rancho Mirage way has James DuBoise at the piano in its cocktail lounge,

LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCIES TO EYE NEW YEAR DRIVING

INDIO — Desert area motorists will get the same close scrutiny and road blocks to reduce hazards of drunken, careless, or reckless driving over the New Year's holiday that were applied over the Christmas holiday, the California Highway Patrol said here.

Capt. Robert Presley, chief of the Indio sheriff's office, revealed that sheriff's deputies will again cooperate in the combined enforcement clamp-down to beat predictions of holiday traffic deaths.

Highway 111 between Palm Springs and Indio will again get a concentration of road blocks in the drive against drunk driving, the CHP reported.

where you'll meet the stars with host Lloyd Bridges and his screenland partners, from 9 p.m.

Ruby's Dunes in Palm Springs has Larry Foy at the Keyboard of its piano bar and Palm Desert's Firecliff Lodge features popular Mr. and Mrs. 88 — both from 9 p.m.

OVER AT THE SIGNATURE Room, Nora Evans vocals with Jack Pfeiffer at the keyboard, along with Balladeer Bob Wewert — from 8 p.m.; and Bob Martha holds down the keyboard of Cathedral City's Rainbow Room.

At Ethel's (plush) Hideaway over in Deep Well, Bob Lane masterminds the piano from 8:30 p.m.; piano man Harry Gillingham double clutches with the organ and piano at Saddle and Sirloin, continuously from 8:30 p.m.

The Juce Schuster duo holds forth at the Desert Inn's famed cocktail lounge from 9 p.m. to closing.

Down La Quinta way, the Hal White Quartet and vocalist Clessa Williams will keep things lively at the Desert Club with a continuous program from 7:30 p.m.

PALM SPRINGS ELKS Lodge members will have their annual New Year's Eve dinner-dance and Los Compadres and the Tennis Club, the Palm Springs Ranch Club, Thunderbird Country Club and American Legion post here will stage their traditional New Year's parties.

Early and late diners — those who sup before revelry time and those who dine after the midnight whistle blows — are similarly expected to satisfy their appetites at Village area hotel dining rooms and restaurants.

In addition to the aforementioned night clubs and hotels, most of which feature fine cuisine, you'll find such popular dining places as Oasis Hotel, the Flame French restaurant, Don the Beachcomber, Ocotillo Lodge, Desert Air Hotel, and many more.

A complete wrap-up of activities of private clubs may be found on Page B-1 of today's Desert Sun.

It'll Cost You More

U.S., World Will Fete New Year

United Press International It should be a generally Happy New Year for Americans tonight as the big hand on the nation's time clock swings to midnight across the country.

For 1959 was, generally, a year of prosperity, peak employment and progress — marked by sputnik-scented glimmers of international understanding and frought with the kind of glad tidings that add up to a joyous New Year's Eve.

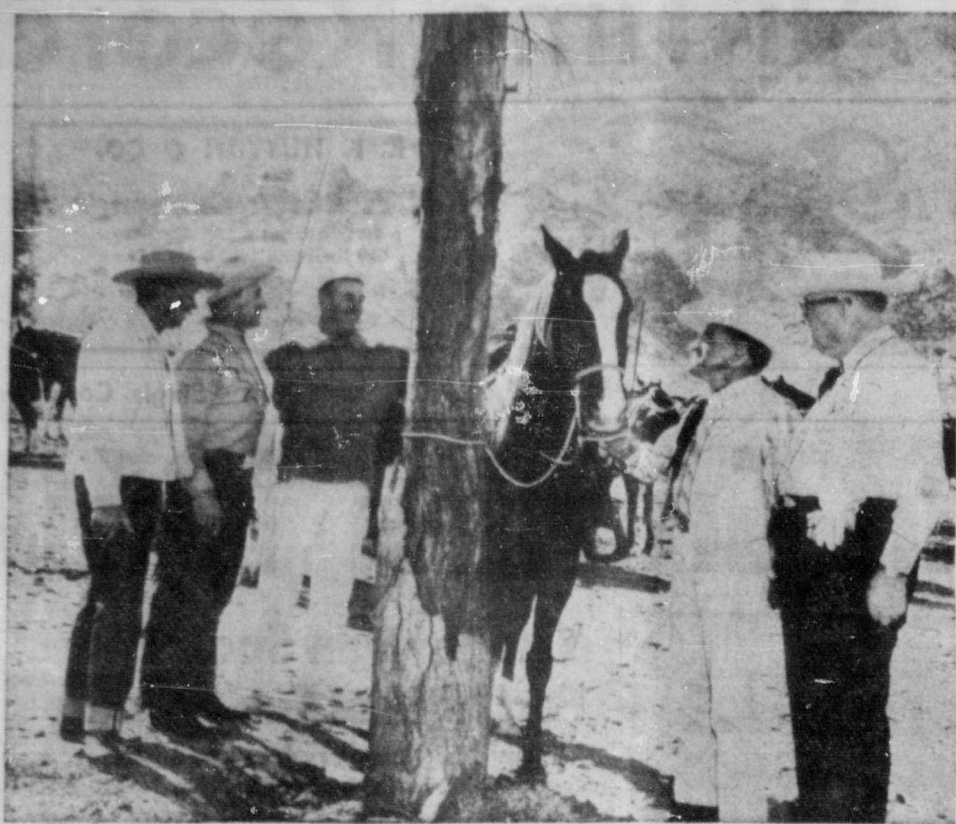

Over on the other side of the globe, where they apparently lump traffic deaths in one huge catch-all of "miscellaneous fatalities," millions of Russians will break out the champagne, caviar and vodka tonight for what promises to be the liveliest New Year's Eve in Soviet history, according to United Press International.

SOVIET citizens who ignore Christmas because of its religious implications roaringly celebrate New Year's with a slambang, gift-swapping observance.

Of course, Americans know how to celebrate too, even though the tab for their revelry will cost more tonight than it did when 1959 was ceremoniously ushered in last Dec. 30.

Tabs at the better bistros around the country will range from $20 to $50 per couple, "depending on how wild you want to get." Millions of credit-card carriers will enjoy a delayed hangover — they get their bills 30 days later.

AN OUTING BY THE DESERT Riders was held at noon Tuesday, at which time the group talked over the possibility of having a study made for horse and hiking trails throughout the area. Ed McCoubrey said that the Desert Riding and Hiking Trails Association will appear before the City Council and the Board of Supervisors to ask them to direct planning commissions into evaluating the establishment of trails. Pictured above, left

DR. LOUIS EVANS TO SPEAK AT BIBLE CONFERENCE HERE

Dr. Louis H. Evans, who has been rated one of the outstanding religious leaders of this country, will be speaker at the annual Winter Bible Conference in the Community Church of Palm Springs Jan. 3 to 8.

His preaching mission will start at the duplicate worship services Sunday morning. A Bible Class will be held each afternoon Monday through Friday from 4:40 to 8:30, and Dr. Evans also will preach at the evening service each night at 7:30.

DR. EVANS, SINCE 1953, has served as minister-at-large for the Board of National Missions of the United Presbyterian Church in the United States, traveling about the country to speak at universities, conventions, before civic groups and at national conferences.

For the past seven years he has served during the summer as pastor of the National Presbyterian Church in Washington, D.C., where President and Mrs. Eisenhower are regular attendees.

Suicide Aim to Punish

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Many persons who commit suicide really do not grasp beforehand the fact that they really are about to end it all, say Drs. Edwin S. Shneidman and Norman L. Farberow of the Los Angeles Suicide Prevention Center.

Many of these persons, said the doctors, merely wish to punish someone and they choose suicide as a means of doing it.

Newmans Off to Singapore After Christmas-ing in Bali

By ELLEN SAUNDERS

The travelings Newmans, Myrna and Bob, are now en route to Singapore after having spent Christmas in Bali. New Year's Day in Singapore will be followed by a brief stay in Ceylon. Then off to India until early February when they will visit Africa before flying to Europe and picking up a Mercedes Benz in which they will tour the continent.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Walker and daughter, Joyce, of Riverside, were Christmas Day guests of the Simon Thompsons. The Walkers lived in Desert Hot Springs for many years, and Mr. Walker organized the Toastmasters Club here.

Phyllis Smilen, a freshman at Los Angeles City College, is home for the holidays. Miss Lynn Levant, a college friend from Hollywood, is Miss Smilen's houseguest.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McEathron of Newport Beach are spending 10 days at the Caravansary Trailer Park while Mrs. McEathron works on her latest educational book for children. Christmas Eve found the McEathrons enjoying dinner at the new Highlander Saddle and Sirolo, as the guests of the A. L. Eatons.

J. Marie Ropp, who returned Sunday from San Francisco, reported a "glorious" Christmas spent with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Goetz.

Mrs. Chester Dodd returned Sunday from Anaheim where she had enjoyed the holidays with her son and daughter-in-law, the Chester Dodds. Prior to leaving town, Mrs. Dodd had held open house on Christmas Eve. Guests included Glenn and Ettie Kephart, Mabel Carson, Margaret Tarasoff, Louise Holmes, Frank McGuire and the L. W. Metzlers of Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Mooney and daughter, Anita, motored to Pasadena on Thursday to spend Christmas with Mrs. Mooney's mother, Mrs. F. Wood.

Localities who spent the holidays in San Francisco and its environs included the Frank Kibbey who motored to visit with their son and daughter-in-law, the Edward Kibbey; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Meadows, who were in Berkeley with their two daughters and their grandchildren, and Mrs. Fern Norton who houseguested with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Andre Berliner returned to their Beverly Hills home Saturday after spending several days at the Desert Aire Motel. The Berliner's are the owners of Andre's Beauty Salon, an exclusive shop in Beverly Hills which numbers many movie personalities among its patrons.

Mrs. Edna Ellis enjoyed Christmas day with her son, James in Hollywood. Mr. Ellis, who is associated with the Desilu productions, returned to Desert Hot Springs with his mother for the weekend. Both were luncheon guests of the A. L. Eatons on Sunday.

Christmas stay-at-homes who entertained out-of-towners included the Leighton Nugents who had as their houseguests Mrs. Paul Thias and daughter, Mary Jane of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. William Kearney, owners of the Sand and Sage Motel, whose three daughters, Mrs. Dick Maron of Canoga Park, Mrs. Carl Fleishmann of Burbank and Mrs. Billie Barrett of Sun Valley arrived on Christmas Eve accompanied by their husbands and children; the Howard Carrs, owners of Carr's Fine Foods, whose dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. William Barton and daughter of Redondo Beach.

The Harold Arnesens are spending a week with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Thompson of Sherman Oaks. The Thompsons were former residents of Desert Hot Springs.

Paving Approved For Avenue 42

Paving of 42nd Avenue between Washington and Adams west of Indian at a cost of $3,000 to the county and $2,650 to abutting property owners was approved by the Board of Supervisors this week on recommendation by Road Commissioner A. C. Keith.

DHS Community Fund Will Meet To Reorganize

DESERT HOT SPRINGS — The Desert Hot Springs United Community Fund has scheduled a new meeting for Jan. 18 in its efforts to reorganize with representatives of local civic and fraternal organizations.

Bert Langlois, president of the United Community Fund board of directors set the meeting for the Adult Recreation Center in Community Park.

The action was taken during a meeting Monday attended by representatives of 10 of the approximately 20 local organizations. Only three of the 10 representatives were authorized by their organizations to accept board membership for the fund.

Langlois explained that at the new meeting, representatives will be considered members of the board, and will vote for a slate of officers to operate the Community Fund. The action is taken to provide wider community participation in fund activities, he said.

Suffer, Little Children

NEW YORK (UPI) — A recent United Nations study shows that of the estimated one billion children in the world, 750 million live in economically underdeveloped areas and roughly 600 million live in nations where per capita average income is less than $100.

COUNCIL LAUDS 'SUN' EDITORIAL

The Palm Springs City Council has commended The Desert Sun for an editorial calling for cooperation of all citizens in observance of municipal regulations, in a council resolution passed last Wednesday.

The resolution quoted the editorial as saying observance of local ordinances is largely "a gentleman's agreement." The resolution concluded:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that the City Council does hereby commend the energetic attempts of "The Desert Sun" to obtain a general and thorough observance of municipal regulations, all for the benefit and welfare of the citizens of Palm Springs."

The resolution was forwarded to Sun publisher Ward J. Risvold by the city clerk's office.

New officers of the Palm Springs Chapter, Classified School Employees Association, will be installed at the organization's annual banquet Jan. 6.

The banquet is scheduled for 8 p.m. at the Palm Springs Elks Club.

Owen Kidman, vice president of the state CSEA, will serve as installing officer for Leveret Prosky, president; Marjorie Olds, vice president; Dorothy Richey, recording secretary; Blanche Hayward, treasurer, and Merle Ross, reporter.

Cord-Free Razor

CHICAGO (UPI) — A completely cord-free, portable electric razor now makes it possible to shave any time... anywhere. The self-powered razor is cobalt-activated to operate for a week on stored-up power. It can be quickly recharged by simply plugging it into any 110-volt A-C outlet.

Weighing just 15 ounces, the razor features a close-cutting rotary blade action, and comes with a side-burn and mustache trimmer. (Master Craftsman, available at Sears, Roebuck.)

Board Denies Survey Record

Acting on the planning commission's recommendation the Board of Supervisors disapproved a record of survey development this week at 62nd between Monroe and Madison southwest of Thermal beach. The area is reported by the Coachella Valley County Water District to be subject to flooding. The would-be developer is the Desert Property Consultants of Palm Desert.

EARL WILSON

1959 Was for Fun --But Kookie, Too

NEW YORK—This was a kookie year and to make it kookier I now present my 1959 Broadway Bests.

Each winner of an Earl Wilson Broadway Best Award will receive a special gold-engraved invitation, to come up to my house and hand to me some small "nominal" token of their admiration such as a private plane (preferably a jet), because nobody can influence me.

Now . . . the Best Actresses: Anne Bancroft, Carol Lawrence, Ethel Merman, Mary Martin, Sandra Church, Patty Duke, Pat Wilson, Molly Berg. And of course Marilyn Monroe, Jack Lemmon and Tony Curtis in "Some Like It Hot."

Greatest Actor (even he will admit this): Jackie Gleason. Also Melvyn Douglas, Walter Pidgeon, Sir Cedric Hardwicke, Tom Bosley, Warren Beatty, Lauren Bacall. Best New Quiz Show: Conqueror Oren Harris. Most Forgotten Romance: Ingemar Johansson's with Whoever That Was. Mother of the Year: Beverly Aadland's.

Most Photographed Cheesecake: Laya Raki (the German actress-wife of Ron Randall). New Gals: Tuesday Weld, Natalie Trundy, Pixie Alden. Best New Story-Tellers: Shelley Berman, Mort Sahl, Charles Van Doren. Best TV show: Bob Hope's when he said he positively did not give "free plugs" on his show: "we charge for them."

Best New Drinks: Anything double and on the rocks. (The Harwyn had a pousse l'amour: eggwhite, cream of vanilla, brandy and then you set it aflame and run like hell. Biggest Comebacks: Debbie Reynolds, Della Reese, Larry Adler. Certain winner of TV's "Empty" Award: Mickey Rooney.

Biggest New Personalities: Edd (Kookie) Byrnes, Bobby Darrin, Frankie Avalon, Paul Anka, Connie Francis. Top Disc Jockey: Hmmm. Hardest Name to Spell: Nukeeter Krooschhoff. Expression which contributed most to banality: "And all that jazz." Bridegroom Most Likely to Succeed: Steven Rockefeller.

Biggest beatnik: Castro. Pop Pop Composer: Julie Styne for "Everything's Coming Up Roses" and "Let Me Entertain You." Opening of the Year: Eddie Fisher's at the Waldorf; Closing of the Year: Toots Shor's. Best New Restaurants: Four Seasons, the Columns, the Brasserie (nicknamed "The Bra").

Most Promising Performers: Comedienne Phyllis Diller, Conedian Dave Barry, Singers Tina Turner, Anita Bryant, Harry Snow. Most Moving Cafe Act: Red Skelton's. Best books: Moss Hart's "Act One" and Groucho Marx' "Groucho and Me." Dirty word of the year: "payola."

Monique Van Vooren's rented Anita Ekberg's house in Beverly Hills—she'll do a TV series, "The Islanders," and a movie "The Melody of Sex," opposite Kirk Douglas . . . Johnny Burke, most popular and talented of the lyricists, will do words & music for the London "Little Lord Fauntleroy" starring Eddie Hodges . . . The CBS theme song: "Stanton on the Corner, Watchin' All the Plugs Go By" . . . Barbara Cook, who left "Music Man" to have a baby, will star in George Abbott's next musical, "Tenderloin" . . . Gina Lollobrigida, who skipped the "Solomon and Sheba" premiere because of tax difficulties, will be here next month—the start of a new tax year.

A happy 1960 to all of you from the B.W., the Gorgeous Mother-In-Law, Slugger, Scratchy (the monkey) Sammy (the Schnauzer) and E. W. Good Luck and good health through all your years—and did you remember to remember somebody who lost someone this year?

Edd (Kookie) Byrnes, out-and-around with model Brenda Sammis, denies knowing anything about Warners' plan to replace him on "77 Sunset Strip" with Michael McKee over contract difficulties . . . Sammy Davis' Jr.'s Hebrew teacher, Trudy Feldman, a rabbi's dtr., wrote a piece about and with him for Ebony . . . Jimmy Stewart's reading "Advise and Consent," with the idea of playing it for Otto Preminger . . . The wife of one of these Men Who Had Everything asked him what he wanted for Christmas and he said: "A divorce."

Dick Gehman's Christmas card says: "A contribution in your name has been sent to the holder of the mortgage on our house." . . . The title of Elvis Presley's first film after his Army discharge has been changed again, to "Dog-face" . . . Sammy Davis Jr.'ll headline in South America for the first time, in June . . . The mfr. of Jackie Gleason's blue - topped pool table wanted to photograph it for an ad; Jackie agreed—for a price . . . the price he paid for the table originally . . . Pretty Dee Drummond has busted out with a new record, "Feelin'."

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: A first-time golfer complained: "How do you like that! I come out here for exercise—and instead I get a hole in one!"

LATIN SONG-STYLIST Estelita paid an informal—but thoroughly noted—drop-in call at the Hilltop Room last week and sat one out with "Pappy" Landfield. The singer, an off-heard performer via records and TV shows as well as through innumerable club dates, may perform in the Village. Entertainers congregate at the Hilltop Room when not working their own jobs. (Desert Sun Photo).

HOLIDAY-TIME IS REUNION-TIME for Lewis and Sanchez and for Sammee Tong, center, featured performer on TV's "Bachelor Father" series. Sammee caught the pair during their current stand at the Howard Manor and revived an oldie — "Chinatown, My Chinatown" — which Sammee taught the pair to sing 10 years ago at San Francisco. Sammee stayed onstage with the team and made it a trio presentation. The threesome formerly appeared together on TV in San Francisco. Lewis and Sanchez, who wind up their current stand at the Manor on Jan. 3, will be joined tonight by Murray Arnold and His Orchestra, direct from a Las Vegas engagement.

Anita Ekberg Quizzed in Rome Over Strip Party

ROME (UPI) — Swedish actress Anita Ekberg has been questioned by the district attorney's office about her participation in a strip-tease party, court sources have revealed.

The party took place Nov. 5, 1958, in a local restaurant but Miss Ekberg was not summoned to District Attorney Antonio Corrias' office until Dec. 23.

Miss Ekberg gave Corrias information about what happened at the club after she kicked off her shoes and did a torrid cha-cha to the accompaniment of a jazz band.

Witnesses said Miss Ekberg was followed on the floor by Turkish belly dancer Nana Kaish who stripped down to her black lace panties before police broke up the party.

ELVIS' AMBITION? TO BE LIKE FRANK!

FRANKFURT, Germany (UPI) —Elvis Presley has a secret ambition. He wants to be like Frank Sinatra.

Friends of the soldier - singer, now winding up two years of Army service with the 3rd Armored Division, said today that when he returns to Hollywood he wants to branch out and become more of an actor.

"I THINK Elvis' idea is to keep on singing while switching his main channel of activities to acting," a source close to Presley said.

"I guess you could say that Frank Sinatra is the man he wants to model himself on. After all, Sinatra made the transition from just another pop singer to one of the world's top movie stars — why shouldn't Elvis?"

"YOU MIGHT say that this two years' soldiering has broadened his mind; he knows he can do

LEONTYNE PRICE DUE AT MET AS WELL AS VILLAGE

NEW YORK (UPI) —Leontyne Price, Negro soprano from Laurel, Miss., will sing at the Metropolitan Opera next season, it was announced today.

Met General Manager Rudolf Bing said he had signed Miss Price to make her debut as Leonora in Verdi's "Il Trovatore." She will sing the same role at the opening performance of the New Festival Theater in Salzburg, Austria, in July. She will also appear in Palm Springs for the Community Concerts Association.

Miss Price sang Bess in Gershwin's "Porgy and Bess" in its 1953 New York revival and in its touring production. She also has appeared with the San Francisco Opera, the Chicago Lyric Opera, the Covent Garden Opera of London, and the Arena Opera of Verona, Italy.

John Hilton's 1-Man Show To Be Feted

Reception Slated Prior to Official Opening of Show

TWENTYNINE PALMS — A reception for the artist at 2 p.m. Saturday will open the one-man show of John Hilton which will be displayed at the Art Museum Saturday through Jan. 15.

The show and reception are sponsored by the Twentynine Palms Artists' Guild.

DURING THE reception, Hilton will give a demonstration of his palette knife technique. The artist, who specializes in desert scenes, uses a wax medium to give long canvas life, and brilliance to subtle colorings.

A resident of Twentynine Palms, Hilton has held more than 100 one-man shows in three countries. His next show will be in Scottsdale, Ariz., in February, followed by a New York show in March.

Eight pages of Hilton's color will appear in the March issue of the internationally distributed "Arizona Highways," and a full color page is in the current issue of the Humble Oil Co. magazine.

HILTON IS AUTHOR of "Sonora Sketch Book," published by MacMillan, and his new book on Baja California, "Hardly Any Fences," is awaiting publication. In addition he has published articles on gems and geology, herpetology, and exploration of remote areas of Mexico.

A SWINGIN' SINGER is shapely Nora Evans, who is now appearing at the Palm Springs Signature Room following her big hit appearance at Dino's Lodge on the Sunset Strip. Equally at home with ballads or pop, Miss Evans is a frequent actress and singer on television and the legitimate stage. She is currently appearing at the Signature Room with Bob Weymouth, singing guitarist, and pianist Jack Pfeiffer in nightly programs of continuous entertainment.

Hey, Shutterbugs! Head for Date Fete

Photographers who are particularly pleased with their shutter-clicking ability are invited to enter their outstanding prints in the fourth annual Riverside County Fair and National Date Festival photographic salon at Indio.

The salon will be a major feature of the 1960 Festival which runs Feb. 12 through 22. It will be set up in spacious quarters in the new $300,000 horticultural exhibition building.

V. C. "BUD" GROSSMAN, of Riverside, is the general chairman. He will be aided by members of the Victoria Camera Club and the Greyback Camera Club. Overall sponsor is the Wind and Sun Council of Camera Clubs.

Grossman said the Salon is open to all photographers. There is no entry fee. A maximum of four prints can be submitted. Each print will be rated entirely upon its merits for composition, interest and technique. Prints accepted in previous years are not eligible.

ENTRIES MUST be mounted on standard 16 by 20 inch white or light colored mounts.

Approximately 150 prints will be accepted for hanging. Grossman said. Trophies will be awarded the three prints judged the most outstanding. Ribbons will be given for honorable mention and the Wind and Sun Council will award three gold medallions.

Entry blanks and additional information can be obtained by writing to Grossman at 4716 Rosewood, Riverside. Last day for filing entry blanks is Feb. 4. Prints will be judged on Feb. 6 by an outstanding jury.

Hannukah Home Contest Awards Given Friday Eve

Prizes in three categories will be awarded to winners in the Hannukah Home Beautiful Contest being sponsored by the P.T.A. of the Jewish Community Center. Many entries have been received and there is still time to enter the contest which will end when awards are made at services Friday evening.

Mrs. Abraham Malach, chairman of the P.T.A., has announced that judges will be representatives from the various Center organizations who will judge the homes on appropriateness to the holiday, family participation and originality.

Cantor Julius Blackman is Temple adviser to the P.T.A.

THE SOUND IS LIKE A CELLO but the music of the "ahjeng," Korean traditional folk instrument since the Rang dynasty of China, is strange to the ears of Mr. and Mrs. Kai Farrelli, 73162 San Nicholas. The couple, touring in the eastern company of "Holiday On Ice," have played before Korean president Syngman Rhee, will tour other southeast Asia countries. Their music lesson comes in Korea House, Seoul, with members of the Seoul Court Music Institute—holding antique instruments—as lecturers.

Chalfont Gains Radio-Telephone Service License

Frank Chalfont, operator of a radio telephone service for mobile and portable units from Banning to the Salton Sea, has been licensed as a common carrier to provide radio telephone service to fixed locations.

The new FCC license authorizes the service under call signal KNB-35, to give two-way voice radio communication to people beyond landline telephone service, Chalfont explained.

Although primarily designed to serve the Coachella Valley, the service will reach into Morongo Valley and up the Palms-to-Pines Highway to Mountain Center, Chalfont said.

Principal users of the service are expected to be developers of land or resources, who are permanently or temporarily beyond telephone lines.

The number of companies in the U. S. selling life insurance has more than doubled in the past decade. There are now more than 1,400 of them.

PALM DESERT COUPLE VIEW FAR EAST WITH ICE SHOW

By PEYTON CANARY III

PALM DESERT — A tour of the freedom bulwarks of the Asiatic Pacific — already highlighted by a special performance for 84-year-old Korean president Syngman Rhee — is one of the work experiences of Mr. and Mrs. Kai Farrelli, 73-162 San Nicholas.

The Farrellis are members of the Far Eastern unit of the "Holiday on Ice" show, which is now appearing in Seoul, Republic of Korea, as part of the cultural exchange between the battle-scarred republic and the United States.

THE COSMOPOLITAN Farrellis represent skating art and heterogeneous America to the free Orient. Eve Farrelli is the former Eve Ross of Los Angeles, and Kai originally came from Denmark.

The couple joined the eastern Holiday troupe in Japan, where the show played Tokyo, world's third-largest city, Fukuoka, ancient university city on tiny Kyushu Island, Sapporo, northern seaport, and Osaka, south of Tokyo.

THE SHOW has played in a 5,000 seat outdoor stadium in Seoul since September 9. As part of the Farrellis personal culture exchange, the couple have studied Korean folklore and history at Korea House, maintained by the Republic of Korea in Seoul. As part of their study, they tried the "ah-jeng," a seven-stringed instrument with a cello-like tone, played with a heavily rosined stick.

Korea, the "land of the morning calm" with a violent history of conflict and oppression dating back to 57 B.C., has been an independent republic since May, 1948. First united as a kingdom in 668 A.D., Korea was occupied by Japan from 1910 to the fall of the Japanese empire in 1945.

SMALL, TOUGH Syngman Rhee, an agitator for Korean independence and a fugitive from Japanese authorities for more than half his life, has been president of the Republic of Korea since 1948.

He led his peninsula-tip nation, long the rice-bowl of Korea and one of two east Asian countries producing a food surplus, through the bitter war which erupted with the Communist armored invasion of the small republic in June, 1950.

KOREA, SELDOM independent but long unified, is one of the volatile spots of Asia, as sentiments for unification of the country still run high both north and south of the 38th parallel.

The nation was divided when Russian troops, sent to occupy the northern half of Korea following the fall of Japan, sealed the border into north against free elections and U.N. inspection teams in 1945.

EAST LANSING, Mich. (UPI) — Duffy Daugherty, Michigan State's witty football coach, admitted he was impressed by several goal line stands his players made this fall but added, "I wish they'd make them up around the 50-yard line where I can see them better."

M'MANUS TALKS AT MRA MEETING

Special to The Desert Sun CAUX, Switzerland — Mrs. Austin McManus, Palm Springs, Calif., addressed 800 delegates from 33 nations at the Moral Re-Armament conference here Christmas Day.

Mrs. McManus, who traveled more than 10,000 miles for the conference, told delegates "The ideology of MRA shelters and protects the world from a threatening storm. 1960 will be one of the great decisive years of history. MRA, fighting in that battle, creates people and families who answer the problems."

Mrs. McManus brought Christmas greetings from Palm Springs Mayor Frank Bogert to the conference.

SIDEWALKS ASKED ON MONROE STREET

Sidewalks along Monroe Street west of Highway 111 are desirable, admitted Road Commissioner A. C. Keith relative to a request by the Indio P.T.A. for walks as a protection to Indio High School students, but their construction should be by the school district.

"It is our belief," said Keith, "that construction of sidewalks is not a proper legal charge against presently available road funds of the county. We are informed that walks can be constructed by school districts and this method seems the only one presently available as far as the county portion of the problem is concerned."

Keith said the City of Indio has asked his office whether the Board of Supervisors would cooperate with the city and share the cost of the proposed improvement. He said he has not yet determined what the cost would be.

The supervisors ordered Keith's letter filed and a copy sent to Mrs. V. H. Luther, president of the Indio Council of Parent-Teacher Associations.

Mrs. Luther had urged that action be taken before a tragedy occurs. She said Monroe between Bliss and Highway 111, and Highway 111 from the fairgrounds to the school are heavily traveled routes during the morning and afternoon periods when they are in use by students and are also hazardous for use by students attending evening activities.

DHS Baptists Set Services

DESERT HOT SPRINGS — The single New Year's Eve religious service scheduled here will be held from 7:30 to 9 p.m. at the Baptist Church.

The Rev. Charles Harwood, pastor, will speak on "1960 — Year of Challenge." The observance will include Communion service. Persons attending the services will be invited to participate in a candle-lighting ceremony following the religious service.

ALMANAC

Today is Dec. 31st the last day of the year 1959. This is New Year's Eve.

The moon is approaching its first quarter.

The morning star is Venus.

On this day in History:

In 1869, French painter Henri Matisse was born.

In 1879, Thomas Edison demonstrated his first lighting through the incandescent lamp to a gay New Year's Eve crowd at Menlo Park, New Jersey.

In 1880, General George Marshall was born.

In 1890, Ellis Island in New York harbor became the receiving station of all immigrants entering the United States on the Atlantic coast.

In 1923, Eddie Cantor opened in "Kid Boots," a smash musical hit at New York.

In 1943, Frank Sinatra started a singing engagement at New York's Paramount Theatre, and promptly became the idol of America's "bobby soxers."

In 1946, President Truman officially proclaimed the end of World War II.

A thought for today: General George Marshall wrote: "If man does find the solution for world peace it will be the most revolutionary reversal of his record we have ever known."

Ottos Daughter Ends CC Visit

By JEAN PATANE

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Lunday, who arrived last Wednesday to spend the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Warner Otto, left Sunday for their home in Manhattan Beach.

Ray Roussin of San Francisco spent Christmas week at the home of his sister and brother-in-law, Bob and Amelia Irvine. Holiday dinner guests at the Irvine home were Pat Lee Stone of Palm Springs, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Renault of Glendale, and Lillian Grusenmeyer of Thunderbird. On Monday morning Bob returned to Santa Monica and Ray left for San Francisco. Another brother, Leonard Roussin and his wife, who make their home in Inglewood, joined the Irvins for Christmas Eve.

Winter resident Lou Jacobin spent Christmas and the holiday weekend in Encino as the houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Warrington.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Lake and family spent Christmas in their home town of San Jose at the home of her mother, Mrs. Lena Boer. Returning Sunday, they were accompanied by Mrs. Boer and Mrs. Lake's niece and nephew, Karen and Jim Boer, who are spending this week with the Lakes.

Among the guests enjoying this holiday week at the Desert View Motel are Mr. and Mrs. M. Alves from Santa Cruz, Mr. and Mrs. E. Van Antwerp of Modesto, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hammel from Costa Mesa, and Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Crabbe from Reno, Nev.

Mr. and Mrs. Les Buell and family left Wednesday after spending Christmas at the Desert View. Among the weekend guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Anderson from San Diego, Mr. and Mrs. Roy H. Cram and Donald Reed and friend from Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. G. G. McCulloch of Berkeley, Elmer Mail of Las Vegas, and Mr. and Mrs. L. Reinert and family, also from Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Bats, Jr., came down from their home in Woodland to visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Bats, Sr., who are here from Salt Lake City, and another son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bats of Salt Lake City were with them Sunday night. Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Sutherland of Paramount were here early in the week.

On Christmas Eve Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Sharp and family joined members of his family including his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Sharp at the home of their daughter and son-in-law (Ivan's sister), Mr. and Mrs. John McBride in Pasadena for the traditional family Christmas Eve Party.

On Christmas, the Ivan Sharps and daughters, Christine and Mrs. Tom Donahoe and children, Tommy and Ronnie, joined members of Mrs. Sharp's family at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Mary Pulling, in Sierra Madre for Christmas dinner. Tom Donahoe, who is stationed at the Naval base in San Diego, spent Christmas with his family in Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Brouer returned Sunday from Victorville where they spent Christmas and the weekend at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ronny Marable.

Over Christmas and the holiday weekend Mr. and Mrs. Karl Gearhart and children, Mark and Phillip, of Malibu, were with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. William J. Harrison for Christmas in the desert.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Harding spent the holiday weekend at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Fair in Los Angeles, and were joined on Christmas Day by another daughter, Maurine Harding, also of Los Angeles.

The day before Christmas Mr. and Mrs. Harold Tuchfarber and family drove to Riverside to spend Christmas Eve at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Tuchfarber. On Christmas Day they were guests at the home of her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Don Benosel in Leucadia. They returned to the desert on Saturday.

Mrs. Elaine Dunbar flew down from her home in Reno, Nev., for a pre-Christmas three day visit with her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Adessi. On Saturday, the Adessi's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. David Spell, arrived from their home in Wilmington for the weekend. He is a chief petty officer with the Navy.

On Christmas Eve Mr. and Mrs. Otto Paulsen entertained their daughter and family, Capt. and Mrs. James R. Thill and children, Paula, Kirk and Patricia from Twentynine Palms, where he is stationed at the Marine Base; also his mother, Mrs. Frank X. Thill from Santa Ana. On Wednesday their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Loren Paulsen and children, Janie and Joe, and their cousin, Jack Paulsen, came from Alhambra to spend a few days with the Paulsens.

Competition Rising for Junior Rodeo

Entry Lists Hiked To 75 With Rash Of Late Entrants

Competition will be keen in the Junior Rodeo Saturday and Sunday afternoon at the Smoke Tree Stables, with approximately 75 entrants, including some of the top youthful rodeo hands in the nation.

And there is plenty of promise for a young contender to make a big name for himself — or herself — at this major event.

KEN JOHNSON, Smoke Tree Stable owner and sponsor of the Junior Rodeo, announced today that entrants will include Ralph Camarillo and three of his sons, who will compete in father-son roping events, and in both the 13 year old and younger, and the 14 to 18 divisions.

Gary Gist, 14-year-old youngster who already belongs to the Rodeo Cowboy Association, will compete, probably teamed with his father in the father-son event. Young Gist and his father have teamed up for approximately $6,000 worth of wins on the professional circuits this year.

TOP LOCAL talent will be competing, too, including Barbara Corcoran in the 14-18 division, and Susan Moore in the 13 and under division. Girl riders from the Los Compadres families will include Suzy Silverman and Gaye Woodmansee, in the 13 and under division.

NEW YORK (UPI) — Robert Burns said it best of all for today.

—Should auld acquaintance be forgot
—And never brought to mind?

FOR THIS IS A time, in looking ahead, to look back for a moment, too, at those who took the big third strike in 1959. Guys like smiling, urbane Vinnie Richards, hurly-burly Maxie Baer, gravel-voiced and open-hearted Bert Bell, dapper Willie Hoppe, spare Nap Lajoie and his Hall of Fame mate, big Ed Walsh.

—Should auld acquaintance be forgot
—And days of auld lang syne?

NOT AT ALL. They'll be a long time remembering those gone this year from the baseball scene. Wrinkled Red Corriden, Sunny Jim Bottomley, Jimmy Ripple, Bondy Ryan, Johnny Allen and Don Black, who was only 40.

—For auld lang syne, my dear
—For auld lang syne.

RACING PAID THE toll, too, for the yearning for speed and thrills. Lead-footed Ed Egan who ducked it in a big crash at Indianapolis, put his foot through it in Milwaukee. Husky Marshall Teague and George Amick caught it at Daytona and Jerry Unser and Bob Cortner at the 500, while Dick Linder was another of the doomed dozen who spun out.

—We'll take a cup of kindness yet
—For auld lang syne.

BAER HAD COMPANY taking the final count. With him went Tony Canzoneri, the smiling gargoyle of a man who wore the feather and lightweight crowns, and such as Baby Joe Gans and old-timer Shamus O'Brien. So, too, did Bell, the battling bantam who "made" pro football.

32 Teams Ready For Tennis Club Doubles Matches

A star-studded lineup of resort tennis teams was posted today for the first annual New Year's mixed doubles invitational tournament at Palm Springs Tennis Club.

Club pro Vini Rurac said 32 teams have entered the new club tournament, which gets under way at noon Friday and runs through Sunday.

The mixed doubles matches will be played on a pro set basis in two rounds. Losers of the first and second rounds will meet in a special consolation flight.

Tournament finals are scheduled for Sunday.

Rurac said that invitational entrants thus far registered include Dinah Shore, Kirk and Ann Douglas, Gussie Moran, Mrs. Gilbert Roland, Mrs. William Powell and young Palm Springs tennis star Frank Ripley.

'Feature Sports' Files Application

NEW YORK (UPI) — Roy M. Cohn's eight-man syndicate today completed its application to the New York State Athletic Commission for a license to stage the return Johansson-Patterson heavyweight title fight at the Polo Grounds, probably June 22.

At the same time, Cohn announced that his board of directors had voted to keep the corporate name "Feature Sports, Inc."

LAWRENCE NAMED TO BLOCK B TEAM

Terry Lawrence, 5-foot, 11-inch forward for the Palm Springs Indians, was named to the All-Star Team of the Banning Block B tournament last week-end, it was announced here yesterday.

The selection was made by the coaches of the 16 competing teams in the tournament.

LAWRENCE, a senior transfer this past fall from Honolulu, will enter league play with the Indians against Beaumont Jan. 12. Lawrence, selected from among 160 players in the 16 competing teams, was a co-captain of the tourney team, along with Marty Berk. Lawrence received a trophy for his selection, which will stand as the All-Star team until the Block B tournament next December.

INDIAN Coach Jim Workman termed Lawrence an "outstanding player." He averaged 14 points per game during the tourney.

330,000 Grid Fans Expected to Attend Major Bowl Tilts

United Press International Wisconsin, Mississippi, Syracuse and Georgia have been installed the favorites for Friday's major bowl games which are expected to attract a total of 330,000 football fans from Florida to California.

And for those who can't wait, there will be some action today in the Sun Bowl at El Paso, Tex., where North Texas State ranks a two-touchdown choice over New Mexico State.

THE BIG DAY, HOWEVER, will be Friday with four major bowl games on tap in addition to a pair of minor ones.

Wisconsin's bone-rattling Badgers are 6½ point favorites over Washington in the Rose Bowl game, or "granddaddy of all bowl games" as it is sometimes called, at Pasadena, Calif. A crowd of 98,000 is expected for this one in which the Badgers will enter the game with a 7-2 record and the Huskies with a 9-1 mark.

MISSISSIPPI IS A seven-point choice over Louisiana State in the Sugar Bowl game at New Orleans.

LSU handed Mississippi its only loss in 10 starts this year, but the odds-makers like the Rebels this time, possibly because halfback Johnny Robinson, Louisiana State's leading pass-catcher, broke his hand in practice last week.

Robinson's hand has been swathed in bandages and there is a chance he will see some action in the game that is expected to draw 82,000.

NATIONAL CHAMPION Syracuse, sporting an unblemished 10-0 record, ranks the most solid favorite of all the bowl teams. The Orange are a 12½-point choice to beat Texas (9-1) in the Cotton Bowl before an anticipated turnout of 75,000 at Dallas.

Syracuse Coach Ben Schwartzwalder said his team is in fine shape, while Texas Coach Darrell Royal said he thought the outcome would be closer than most people expect.

GEORGIA IS RATED 11 points better than Missouri in their Orange Bowl clash at Miami, Fla., where a crowd of 75,000 is expected to be on hand. Georgia brings a 9-1 record into the game and Missouri a 6-4 slate. Missouri is pinning most of its hopes for springing an upset on its powerful line.

The two other games to be played on New Year's Day will be in the Tangerine Bowl at Orlando, Fla., and the Prairie View Bowl at Houston, Tex. Middle Tennessee (9-0-1) was a slight favorite over larger Presbyterian (9-1) in the Tangerine and Prairie View A&M (8-2) was the choice over Wiley (Tex.) (2-6) in the Prairie View.

MRS. CONRAD F. BRYANT

Villager Named AAU Delegate For County Area

Mrs. Conrad F. Bryant of Palm Springs has been named Riverside County athletic commissioner of the Amateur Athletic Union by William A. Lippman, Jr., president of the Southern Pacific Association of the A.A.U., headquartered in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Bryant, who lives at 2099 South Camino Real, formerly conducted the Rancho Marino Swim School in San Marino, taught swimming at the Huntington Hotel and until recently was assistant manager of the Tolenos Swim School in West Los Angeles.

THE GROWTH of activity in recent years in the 22 sports over which the A.A.U. has jurisdiction (swimming, track and field, gymnastics, diving, volleyball, etc.) now requires a decentralization of authority, according to Lippman, particularly since it is all volunteer work.

County commissioners are being established in all the seven Southern California counties — except Los Angeles — comprising the S.P.A.A.U. district, to provide a local source of information on A.A.U. events and regulations, as well as to issue temporary athletic sanctions, accept registration applications and otherwise aid athletes, school, club, resort and recreation department personnel in anyway possible.

THE "AMERICAN WAY" in amateur athletics imposes severe restrictions on the individual with respect to competitive conditions and exhibitions, and upon the acceptance of expense money, prizes or other values as a result of athletic ability.

BEARS WIN, 65-45; CINCY EDGES IOWA

United Press International California dumped West Virginia from the unbeaten ranks by holding vaunted Jerry West to one field goal — and the only reason the same fate didn't befall top-ranked Cincinnati was because no one could hold Oscar Robertson.

The Golden Bears, in a remarkable display of ball-hawking, shocked West Virginia, 65-45, Wednesday night in the final of the Los Angeles Classic to duplicate their victory over the Mountaineers in last season's NCAA title game.

CINCINNATI SURVIVED an early scare in the final of the Holiday Festival Tournament against Iowa but Robertson smashed two records with a 50-point performance that carried the Bearcats to their ninth straight triumph, 96-83.

West canned his lone basket against California with 4:25 left to play and wound up with only eight points as the Mountaineers suffered their first defeat in 11 games. Darrell Imhoff, Cal's 6-10 center, also was off in his shooting, scoring only five points, but his rebounding played a big part in the Bears' 25th straight victory.

BILL MCCLINTOCK took up the slack for Imhoff with a 23-point barrage while Tandy Gillis, guarded by West, added 18.

It was just like old (pre-scandal) times at Madison Square Garden as a capacity crowd of 18,000 watched Robertson strut his stuff against dogged Iowa. Although the Cincinnati hotshot played almost the final 10 minutes with four personal fouls against him, his 50 points set a single game record for the Holiday Festival and gave him a three-game total of 122 for another tournament mark.

IOWA, A 12-POINT underdog zoomed to a 24-13 lead in the first nine minutes. However, Robertson then rammed in six field goals and a free throw in less than four minutes and the Bearcats were off to the races.

Tennis Club Tells Tourney Winners

Winners of the Palm Springs Tennis Club's 12th annual junior tennis tournament were posted today by club pro Vini Rurac.

Rurac said some 75 young tennis players were entered in what was termed "one of the most successful" club junior tournaments. Winners of finals in three categories were:

Age 18 and under—Frank Ripley defeated Gary Grossman, 6-4 and 6-1; Judy Primm edged Janet Primm in a pro set 8-6.

Age 15 and under — Singles, John Creighton beat Gary Grossman, 6-4, 7-5; Karen Lynch defeated Suzie Yanok, 8-6, 3-6, 7-5. Doubles, Steve Rosen and Eugene Mesler over Gary Grossman and John Creighton, and Judy and Janet Primm over Suzie Yanok and Barbara Boyle.

Age 13 and under — Singles, Rick Creighton beat Kenny McCartney, 8-3 in a pro set and Linda Otis won over Linda Reinstein, 8-4 in a pro set; Doubles, Chris Tolman and Melanie Adler defeated Cindy Elliot and Joyce Primm, 9-4 in a pro set. There were no boys' doubles in this group.

Government Sets Drive to Halt Expense Abuses

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The government launched a broad drive today to wipe out abuses in the field of business expense accounts and income tax deductions.

Internal Revenue Commissioner Dana Latham announced that starting in 1961 all employers will be required to give more detailed information on their income tax returns about expense account allowances paid to employees.

Latham told newsmen the revenue service wants to ferret out improper deductions and also allowances which employers should report as income but fail to do so.

"There is a growing tendency for people to try to live on expense accounts," Latham said.

He said this has had two unfortunate results. Latham listed these as loss of tax revenues to the federal government and, "more important to me, a deep resentment on the part of taxpayers who feel their next door neighbors are getting a better break."

BACKSTRAND SEES 'BETTER' FINANCES

Assemblyman Lee Backstrand today reported that the state of California finances appears to be undergoing some "startling changes for the better," according to an analytical review of the state budget.

Backstrand, reporting in his weekly news letter to 71st District constituents, said the review indicates a $73 million surplus in the state's general fund at the fiscal year's end.

"THIS CERTAINLY seems a startling change for the better from the precarious position officially predicted during our 1959 (legislative) session," Backstrand said.

The Riverside County assemblyman based his statements on the report of a special legislative analyst hired to aid the 14-member joint committee on the legislative budget. The 1960 budget session begins in two months. Backstrand said the analyst's report called attention to the improved general fund situation and, expectedly, called for downward revisions in budgetary requirements for many state agencies.

ESTIMATING general fund revenues for the new fiscal year, the report notes that the fund income is running some $35 to $40 million higher than the last official forecast made in August.

The analyst, who said that state sales taxes are responsible for the largest portion of revenue, predicted general fund revenues of $1.47 billion for the current year and $1.63 billion for 1960-61.

"On this basis, he calculates a possible surplus at the end of this year of almost $73 million," Backstrand added.

Charge County Ignored Drainage Denied at Meet

Road Commissioner A. C. Keith denied this week that he ignored complaints by R. H. McDonald of Desert Hot Springs about a drainage problem at the corner of 14th Avenue and West Drive at the desert resort. McDonald said his letters stressing the hazard created by the ditch had gone unanswered.

Keith said the erosion which created the drainage problem is so located that it was difficult to determine whether it was a county or a private responsibility. He said he referred the problem to the road foreman in the area who investigated it some six weeks ago and determined in his own mind that it was not critical and he would repair the damage at the first opportunity. He failed, however, to contact McDonald.

More recently the road foreman has discussed the matter with McDonald, according to Keith, and has imported gravel fill material correcting the situation. "Apparently," said Keith, "the physical condition has been corrected."

Carter May Have Hospital Visits

Desert Hospital officials today said that Dewey Carter, of 1581 South Sunrise Way, who has been seriously ill for the past week, is now permitted visitors. No visitors were previously permitted.

GARDENING IN THE DESERT

Rainfall Aids Desert Flora

What with the hilarious excitement of Christmas, the closed schools and New Year coming up, we feel sure Mr. Amateur Gardener has had little time to give to his garden. The few showers of rain we have enjoyed has been quite a help in keeping those precious plants alive. When the children go back to school Mr. Amateur Gardener will go back to his garden chores.

We have been asked for a list of desert trees, shrubs and flowers that are not too hard to handle. Unless we get very dry weather from now until March we should have the chance of seeing the desert in full bloom.

UNFORTUNATELY THE rapid spread of subdivisions has robbed us of much desert area that, in the past, has painted our beloved desert with all the colors of the rainbow except in the years when there was little rain to bring them out. This season we should have the highways — on Saturday and Sunday — jammed with autos carrying visitors who come here solely to view the panorama of colors. Verbena, Desert Gold and various others.

These natives bloom for only a short period but their blooms are spectacular and run in colors from the white of the Prickly Poppy and Silver Queen, through lavender, yellow, rose — purple, purple and red, to the deep Indigo Blue of the Smoke Tree.

AMONG THE YELLOWS are the Creosote Bush, Palo Verde, Parkinsonia, Perfume Acacia, Encelia and Mojave Broom. The blooms of the Ocotillo and Chuparosa are red, those of Desert Lavender and Verbena are lavender. Honey Mesquite brings forth a creamy yellow bloom.

There are also many species of Cacti which require little care and will surprise with grotesquely shaped and elegantly colored blooms in season. If you happen to have young children with you keep them away from those tiny, thorny spikes that come with the Prickly Cacti; taking them out of a child's tender hand is no easy operation.

THERE IS ONE point we should bring to your notice: The transplanting of purely desert trees is no sinecure. Most of them rely on a tap root for their nourishment, a tap root that — in trees that are just a few years old or trees that are patriarchs or patriarchs — is all the time going down and down to find water. All the trees you see on the open desert are state property and often federal property, all with severe fines protecting them from vandals.

The wild yuccies, verbena, desert gold and other flowers would not survive your trip home so admire them where they are and forget picking them.

We are probably a little early with this advice but the time will come when the advice will become potent; in any case, with the speed at which the whole valley is being subdivided, most of the younger generation will live to see the entire Coachella Valley either agricultural or occupied by homes and other buildings as far as the eye could reach. T.G.M.

UPI Staffer May Be Red Hostage

TOKYO (UPI)—United Press International Vice President for Asia Ernest Hoberrecht has announced that staff correspondent Yim Yuen Lo of the UPI Hong Kong bureau has been missing inside Communist China since July.

Hoberrecht said Yim left Hong Kong for Canton July 19 on an assignment to interview William Downey, who was then in China visiting his brother John, one of five Americans still imprisoned by the Peiping government.

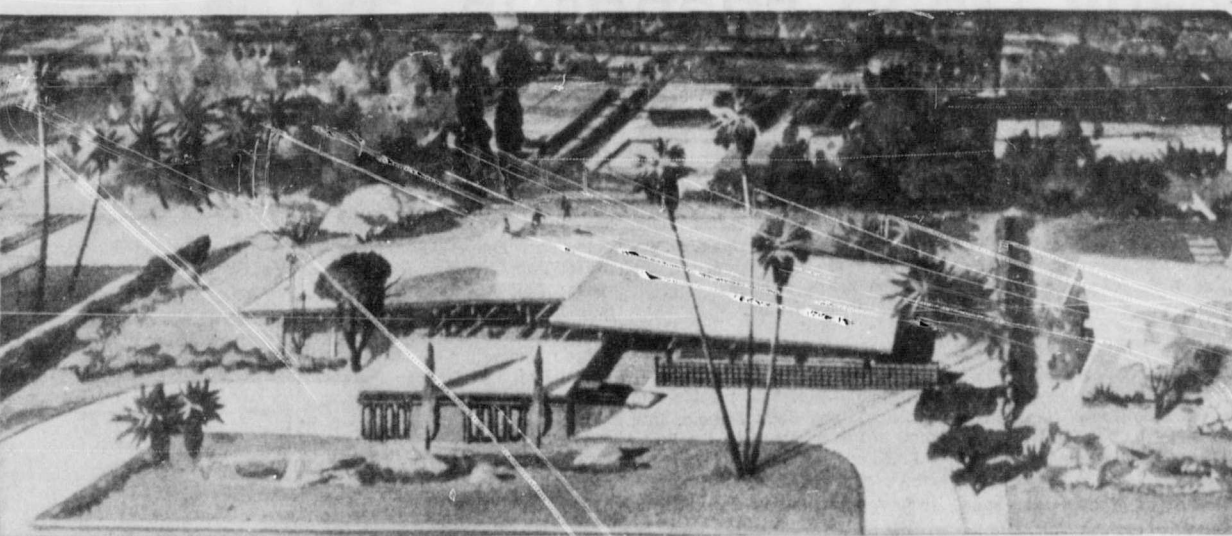

British Mint Busy

LONDON (UPI)—Britain's Royal Mint is working at "full pressure" to produce a cool billion coins for Nigeria.

Nigeria, which becomes independent in 1960, will be starting from scratch as far as its coins are concerned. So it gave the Royal Mint here a rush order for 1,000,000,000 coins of different denominations—more than the mint produced all last year.

Many Gala New Years Eve Parties Planned at Clubs

Celebration at Elks Club This Evening

Favors, hats and noisemakers will be distributed to members of the Palm Springs Elks and their guests when they hold their annual New Years party this evening at the Lodge. Colorful balloons and streamers decorate the clubhouse and there will be dancing to the music of the Larry Foster group. A buffet table will be set up with an assortment of delicacies to choose from.

Among the many New Years celebrants will be Messrs. and Mrs. Fred Mikesell, William Hokey, Bob Winslow, Marvin Wade, William Olsen, Murray Barick, Clifford Sharp, Pat Cohen, Jerry Floyd, Don Jernigan, Sam Hinkle, Bill Rowland, William Brubaker, Al Gardiner, Jerry Mitchell and many more.

Desert Air Planning Festivities

The New Year will literally fly in at Desert Air Hotel with guests arriving from all parts of the nation via their own planes. Desert Air Hotel is planning an "Open House" type New Year's Eve celebration for those in the desert area who want to just "drop in" rather than reserve a table for the entire evening. The regular dinner will be served and all the noise makers and favors will be available. Frank Grace and his trio will play for dancing.

Reservations have been made by Mr. and Mrs. Mike Atlee, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kennedy of Bel Air, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Patricia of Encino and hotel guest Senator and Mrs. George Smathers of Florida. With them are their two sons, Bruce and John.

Host Informal Dinner Party

The Jack Ehrlicks entertained at a small informal candlelight dinner at their home on Twin Palms Drive Tuesday evening, honoring Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Grossman of New York City who are staying at the Ocotillo Lodge for two months, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Janis of Beverly Hills. Grossman is the manufacturer of Groshire and Austin Leeds men's clothing.

We at Plaza Motors are in the business of helping you to enjoy the pleasure and convenience that an automobile offers. In addition to providing outstanding values in cars and the vital protection of "Guardian Maintenance" service, we are also supporting community efforts to help assure your safety in traffic.

In furtherance of this latter objective, we have joined other automobile dealers allied with the Inter-Industry Highway Safety Committee in making a special plea for careful driving during the holiday season.

Be sure you are always fit to drive with alertness, skill and judgment that modern traffic demands. OBEY ALL TRAFFIC RULES. Be courteous to other drivers and to pedestrians. And keep your car in safe condition. This isn't asking much, but it's one of the most valuable bits of advice each of us can give to our family, friends and fellow-motorists.

Gay as the popping of champagne corks, noisy as the best of the drums and the shouts of "Happy New Year," nostalgic as the "Auld Lang Syne" at midnight, colorful as the paper hats and horns and favors, New Years Eve will be well and thoroughly celebrated tonight. Chi Chi has brought in Xaxier Cugat and his band and Abbe Lane for tonight's festive show, and Murray Arnold is back at Howard Manor. The Palm Springs Riviera is celebrating its first New Years with Bobby Ramos and Harold Stern with his $100,000 Stradivarius, and El Mirador offers the South Pacific Room with George Kainapau and Tani Marsh as well as El Mirador Room with Billy Allen and Kiva Room with Tex Kidwell. The Desert Inn's Fountain Room is open again and Santos and Eddie Dillon have planned a gala celebration there.

All around town the night clubs and restaurants will be filled with merriment and a warm welcome for little old New Year 1960. Private parties are mostly small and intimate, with many hostesses choosing to entertain in the Clubs.

At Tennis Club

Pink, red and white balloons will be added for a New Year's touch to the Tennis Club, which was already lavishly decorated for the holidays with poinsettias key-noting the decor.

Dancing will be to the dreamy music of Tony Rose and his orchestra, and the Club will be a gala scene at midnight, when the strains of "Auld Lang Syne" move the crowd to song and toasting the New Year in champagne. A net full of balloons will be spilled over the dance floor with certain numbers redeemable in champagne.

Many large parties will be assembling to welcome the New Year from the Tennis Club. Mayor and Mrs. Frank Bogert will be hosting a party for 10, as they will be celebrating the Mayor's birthday.

Twenty guests will be hosted by the William Maloufs, and the H. H. Ridders have a table for 16. The Harold Coopers will have 14 guests, and the Charles Drivers 10.

Among other celebrants at the Tennis Club will be the Arnold Scheiers of Palo Alto, who are occupying a Tennis Club bungalow for the holidays; the William Stoddards, Darwin Ting and party, the Ed Robbins, Mrs. Helen Bowler of Honolulu, Alan Maclean and his brother and sister-in-law the Frank Macleans of Pasadena, Joan McManus and her son David, who's here for over New Years, the Herb Carpenters, Earl Hendersons, Ed Hunts, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Phillips, the Arthur Cohns and party of four, and many, many more.

At Racquet Club

Festive, fashionable and fabulous probably best describe the New Year's Eve party anticipated at the Racquet Club, where Teddy Noell and his orchestra will provide continuous music for dancing from 9 p.m. until 2 a.m. Traditional table favors, noisemakers, streamers and whimsical paper hats will be provided for merry-makers to welcome in the new year.

Planning to be on hand for the gala occasion are Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rothbart; Mr. and Mrs. Phil Regan, Sr., who will have as their guests their two sons and daughters-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Regan and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Regan, Jr., and their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sachs, all of Pasadena, and Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Carney (he's Commissioner of Motor Vehicles for the State of New York).

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mieselman will have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bolotin, who are visiting from Chicago for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bork will be entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Molin of Beverly Hills.

In the party of Mr. and Mrs. Nat Dumont will be Mr. and Mrs. William I. Hollingsworth, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Hirsch, all of Los Angeles, Senator and Mrs. George Smathers of Florida, Madelyn Fio Rito, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sully of Brentwood, who are their houseguests.

Virginia and Charles Farrell will be among the celebrants, as will "Mousie" and Bill Powell.

Judie and Mrs. Edward Brandt will be the guests of Jerry Nathanson. Also at the Racquet Club will be Mr. and Mrs. Waltha Clarke, as well as Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Jaloff.

Betty and Arthur Jarwood of Palm Springs and New York will be entertaining Betty's father, A. Arbeiter, who is visiting from Lakewood, New Jersey, also Villagers Mr. and Mrs. Robert Markson of Deep Well.

Messrs and Mesdames Maurice Horner, Lester Selig, Edward Silverman, Sam Lehold (of Chicago), and Harry Joe Brown (she's Dorothy Gray) will be among the dozens of others joining in the gaiety at the Racquet Club on New Year's Eve.

At C.O.T. Club

Members and guests of Committee of 25 Club have planned an early New Years celebration and will bring the New Year in at 9 p.m., New York time.

The club has been gaily decorated for the occasion with balloons and streamers and there will be favors and fancy hats for all attending. Entertainment will be provided by George Kainapau and Leo Rojo.

During the cocktail hour crab meat and lobster neuberg will be served followed by dinner prepared by Santos, who will serve it with champagne.

At Ranch Club

The Ranch Club will be filled to capacity for its gala New Years Eve party this evening with the new Naughty Nineties Room the center of a nostalgic brand of merriment.

Plenty of entertainment has been planned. In the Roundup Room the Johnny Arch Quartette featuring Roberta Lee will be on hand. The Corral Room will have the Ace Spriggins Combo, while Wallie Vaughan and Jean Keller will keep things lively in the Naughty Nineties Room, where the old player piano is sure to be surrounded by singing guests. Hats and favors will be distributed to all attending.

Among the members and guests who will be on hand to greet the New Year in are Dr. Wallace Nevins and party, the Paul Douglasses, General and Mrs. Ray Carroll, the Harry Brands, William Peribergs, Noel Clarke, Ross McCutcheons, Russell Strands, and many, many more.

At Thunderbird

New Years Eve will be gala at Thunderbird Country Club, where 350 members and guests will fill the handsomely decorated clubhouse to capacity.

A silver and gold color scheme will be carried out in the decor, with hundreds of balloons screening the ceiling.

Music will be continuous all evening long, with the two orchestras of Pat Barbara and Ruby Moss playing for the dancing, and there will be favors.

Among club members who have planned large tables are Messrs. and Mrs. Harold Cooper, George Irvine, William Malouf, Newton Tarble, Joseph Dyer, H. H. Ridders, Joe Froggatt, Chauncey Needham, S. P. Manasse, L. S. Hall, Franklin Slacel, Ray A'len, Earl Cordrey, William Bannerman, Dolph Oberfeld, Murray Marsh, F. Lauppe, Norbert Chaplicki, Jackson Smart, John Hunter, John Cameron, George Barrett, Don Bleitz, Everett Kelloway, Don Pegler, Peter Kievit, Peter Netteheim, Walter Braunschweiger, Ray Ewing, Stanley Forbes.

Among others are Mrs. Peggy Lester, Mark Kramer, Dr. and Mrs. Hugh Phillips, Dr. and Mrs. Lasher, Judge and Mrs. James Garibaldi, Miss Carol Swanson and party, and many more.

At Indian Wells

When the midnight bells toll in the desert, gay revelry will resound throughout Palm Desert. Clyde Fowler and his orchestra will strike up with "Auld Lang Syne" at Indian Wells Hotel where Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Loeb of Los Angeles will be entertaining friends. They have just returned from a cruise aboard the "Caronia." A party of eight including Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eaton, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Hoedemaker and Mr. and Mrs. John Chudacoff will welcome 1960 during their desert holiday from their Los Angeles homes and businesses, all restaurants.

From Pomona, Mr. and Mrs. Erroll W. Murphy will entertain a party of six, Dwight Edwards of See NEW YEARS, Page 2B

Satellite Room to Tele New Years This Evening

Eight couples from San Diego will be celebrating the arrival of 1960 in the Satellite Room at Firecliff Lodge. It's traditional for them to be together on New Year's Eve. The group includes Mr. and Mrs. Gene Baker, Mr. and Mrs. William Bloom, Mr. and Mrs. MacDonald Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Maury Plance, Mr. and Mrs. John O'Brien, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Shirk and Mr. and Mrs. Dave Corbett.

Adolph Spreckles and a group of friends will dine and celebrate the arrival of 1960 in the Satellite Room where Mr. and Mrs. 89 will entertain with an additional group for dancing music.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ponty of Los Angeles are hosting a large party for the New Year's weekend at Firecliff Lodge. From Bel Air, Mr. and Mrs. J. Allen Kerr will entertain friends during the festive weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernhard Nyman, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Barnes of Long Beach, Mr. and Mrs. George Anderson of San Francisco and Palm Desert and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Fredrickson of Oakland and Palm Springs have all made reservations.

The gaiety of the evening will be enhanced by Jack Kerns and his orchestra with special entertainment presented by Wally Blair and vocalist Merle Tabor. Others planning to attend the gala evening are Mr. and Mrs. J. E. O'Neill of Fresno and Palm Springs, Mr. and Mrs. E. Fred Franklin, Beth Fisher and Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Bramwell of Iowa and Palm Desert. Over 450 guests will welcome 1960 at the beautiful Shadow Mountain Club.

Impromptu Santa Claus

Amuses Club and Guests

Toastmistress members and their friends gathered around the wassail bowl at the Buena Vista home of Margot Morrison, when the Club held its Christmas party.

The Morrison home, gaily decorated for the holidays, was candle lit for the meeting and the festivities that followed.

Mary Fowler, the impromptu Santa Claus, was amusingly garbed in a red flannel nightgown, paper napkin beard, and an incongruous looking straw hat, as she passed out the gifts which were exchanged.

Susie Hubbard was Toastmistress.

Los Compadres to Welcome in The New Year

Balloons and streamers will decorate the clubhouse of Los Compadres when members gather this evening to herald in the New Year.

There will be dancing to the music of L. D. Rounkile and his TV Town Hall band and an 11 o'clock buffet will be served by Jack Boyer and his staff.

New Years Holiday Crowd Is Expected to Be at Capacity

Over the New Year's holiday, the Racquet Club will have a capacity crowd. In addition to the host of guests who will be spending both Christmas and New Year's at the club, there were many more arriving immediately after Christmas, who will be staying several days following the gala New Year's Eve party.

Distinguished visitors from New York are Mr. and Mrs. Adam Gimbel (Saks Fifth Avenue) with their friends Mr. and Mrs. William Rose, who will be staying until January 19; and famed designer Molly (Livingston) Parnis, who will be at the Racquet Club until January 9.

Among guests from the Los Angeles area will be Mr. and Mrs. Lewis A. Kingsley, Jonie Taps (Columbia Pictures executive), Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Bergerman, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Israhel, from Van Nuys, Dinah Shore, her husband George Montgomery, and their two children Missy and Jody; from Beverly Hills, Jack Tavelman, Victor Orsatti (Desilu Productions executive), and Miss Diane Greer, who also has a chic knitwear shop in the Village.

A. S. Glikbarg and his daughter are expected to come down from San Francisco to spend several days, over the New Year's Eve holiday.

Chevalier To Guest On 'Person'

Entire Program To Be Devoted To French Star

Maurice Chevalier will be the sole guest on "Person to Person" New Year's Day, Friday, Jan. 1, on The CBS Television Network (10:30-11 p.m., p.s.t.) marking the second time in its seven-year history that "Person to Person" has devoted an entire broadcast to a single visit.

The other was a visit with former President and Mrs. Harry S. Truman in May, 1955.

CHEVALIER, WHO will be 72 in 1960, will be seen at his villa in Marnes-la-Coquette, a suburb of Paris. The estate is only 50 yards from the home of General Lauris Norstad, commander of SHAPE (Supreme Headquarters, Allied Powers in Europe).

A video-taped "tour" conducted by Chevalier will take the "Person to Person" overseas cameras from an outdoor stage (Chevalier, says Chevalier, "I can give concerts for the rich to benefit the poor") to the two-story mansion which is the star's residence when he is in France.

CHEVALIER, AMONG other things, will show his collection of French paintings, which include works by Picasso, Vlaminck, Cezanne and Renoir. He will also display his collection of ash trays, all in the shape of straw hats, his professional "trademark."

Chevalier, who started as a clown at the age of 11, is completing his 61st year in show business. One of his greatest recent successes was the film "Gigi" with Leslie Caron, who was a "Person to Person" guest at her home in London earlier this month. Chevalier recently returned to France from Hollywood where he completed the movie "Can Can," in which he starred with Frank Sinatra and Shirley MaLaure.

He plans to come to the United States again soon to begin work on a filmed version of the stage hit "Fanny," to be directed by Joshua Logan, and to appear on The CBS Television Network (Feb. 12) in "Tonight with Chevalier," a full-hour musical special.

Stunt Driving To Be Shown

The work of Dan Fleenor, a man who makes his living crashing cars through walls of ice, driving through flaming hoops and catapulting cars across 50-foot hurdles with his troupe of Hell Drivers, is seen in "Stunt Driver" on "Danger Is My Business," Thursday, Dec. 31, 6:30 p.m., KCOP, Channel 13.

The men also are seen as they invent ways to smash cars and still walk away from the wreckage.

Freak Accident Brings Rescue

Three brothers searching for lost ships and treasure discover the corroded wreck of an old freighter sunk with valuable cargo on board.

KTTV Plans Top Parade Coverage

Final Preparations To Be Telecast Starting at 5 a.m.

Marking the station's 11th anniversary, KTTV will provide Southern California viewers with television's most comprehensive coverage of the 1960 Tournament of Roses Friday, Jan. 1, when Channel Eleven presents two complete telecasts of the parade itself as well as more than four and a half hours of pre-parade activities.

Bringing viewers every phase of the colorful annual event, Channel Eleven will start its coverage at 5 a.m. to show final preparations and pre-parade activities, including filmed highlights of the 1959 Tournament of Roses.

KTTV'S FIRST complete coverage of the actual parade will start at 8:45 a.m. Second telecast (a videotape presentation of the first) will begin at approximately 11 a.m.

The bi-lingual coverage of the Tournament parade is set with KWKW and KCAL to provide the commentary for the KTTV picture. The more than 500,000 Mexican-Americans in Southern California will have a complete verbal description of the Channel Eleven television coverage through arrangements completed with radio stations KWKW in Pasadena and KCAL in Redlands.

VIEWERS WISHING to follow the event with the description in Spanish will be able to tune television sets to Channel Eleven, turn off the sound and set radio dials at 1300 (KWKW) or 1410 (KCAL). Handling the Spanish commentary will be Ernesto Cervera, stationed near Bill Welsh, KTTV's Director of Special Events, who will describe the activities and conduct the interviews for Channel Eleven.

The telecast will mark KTTV's 11th anniversary. It's first presentation - Jan. 1, 1949, the Tournament of Roses parade.

WELSH, WHO WILL describe pre-parade activities New Year's Eve and interview parade participants, will be joined by Sheriff John (Rovick) Friday morning to interview Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the Grand Marshal of the parade; Rose Queen Margaret Bertelson and her court, personalities appearing in the parade, and officials in and around the assembly area.

KTTV will utilize most of its remote facilities in presenting what is probably television's most comprehensive coverage of the annual event. Channel Eleven has more remote facilities than any other single station in the nation. Eight cameras, five complete remote units, seven mobile radio-communication units, four microwave links to Mt. Wilson and a total crew of approximately 50 technicians and announcers have been assigned to the telecasts.

Barbara Britton To Be Hostess

Barbara Britton will be hostess for the New Year's Eve "Big Party" Thursday, Dec. 31 (9:30-11 p.m., p.s.t.) on The CBS Television Network.

Miss Britton's guests for this gala evening include Patrice Munsel, Sammy Davis, Jr.

TV-Radio In The Sun YEAR'S TOP NEWS TO BE REVIEWED

"Eyewitness to History: 1959," a special full-hour television summary of the most momentous news events of the past year, with particular emphasis on the advent of "traveling diplomacy" in international relations, will be presented on The CBS Television Network Friday, Jan. 1 (9-10 p.m., p.s.t.) under the sponsorship of the Firestone Tire & Rubber Company, it was announced today by William H. Hylan, Vice President-Sales Administration, CBS Television Network.

The special program, being produced by The CBS Television Network by CBS News, will devote itself principally to the major news stories of 1959 - the wide-ranging personal diplomatic travels undertaken by world leaders.

CBS NEWS correspondent Walter Cronkite will be the program's anchor man. Also reporting on "Eyewitness to History: 1959" will be CBS News correspondents Howard K. Smith, Winston Burdett, Stuart Novins and Daniel Schorr. All five CBS newsmen are coming to New York from assignments in various world news centers to participate in the program.

Included in the program's summary of the year's diplomatic travels by world leaders will be videotape and film highlights - as covered on the spot by CBS News - of President Dwight D. Eisenhower's visits to Western Europe and to 11 Mediterranean and Asian nations; Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's visit to the United States; British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan's missions to Moscow and Washington; Vice President Richard M. Nixon's trip to Moscow, and the Western Summit meeting which will be held in Paris next week.

Much of the program will incorporate the on the spot coverage of the President's journey, and Premier Khrushchev's visit here as seen on the current "Eyewitness to History" series, also sponsored by the Firestone Tire & Rubber Company.

'Greek Idealism' To Be Discussed

The development of the Greek concept of beauty through proportion will be the interesting art topic of host, Lorser Feitelson, in his program, Sunday Afternoon, Jan. 3, at 3:30 p.m. over KRCA (Channel 4).

Tension Eased in 1959

In retrospect the most important occurrence of the year 1959 was a definite easing of international tensions in the "cold war" between Communism and the Free World.

In greater part this was directly brought about by the introduction of jet age "personalized" diplomacy headlined by the visit of Premier Khrushchev to the United States and the several tours of President Eisenhower to confer in person with leaders of Allied nations.

Subsequent events have proven that person-to-person discussions and exchanges of visits by the heads of nations tend to simplify diplomatic procedure, shorten time involved and make for clearer understanding as well as generate more cordial relations and support of the public at large in the various countries.

Doubtless this policy of visitation between the chief executives of world powers will continue and even be increased during 1960 with President Eisenhower having already planned a visit to Russia and a trip to South America being also under consideration.

All of which indicates that in addition to domestic problems, as important as they may be, the leader of a great nation such as the United States also must give considerable time, effort and thought to the promotion of peace and good will on a worldwide basis.

In fact, since the development of missiles and atomic weapons capable of a "push button" war, the average citizen in America and most other countries now considers world developments of potentially greater import in many instances than domestic matters.

This was clearly shown in the recent selection of the ten "top" news stories of 1959 by a poll of American newspaper editors. Seven of the major events involved worldwide or international interest and only three were internal in scope.

As examples of relative importance the editors rated the Khrushchev-Eisenhower visits and the Soviet "shot" at the moon above the worst steel strike in history. Likewise Castro's "capture" of Cuba was rated a notch higher than the sensational hearings and expose of television quiz show rigging.

Similarly the death of John Foster Dulles, Red China's border attacks on India and De Gaulle's return to power in France were rated above the forced confinement of Louisiana's Governor Earl Long, the tenth of the stories selected.

Of course, it is probable that several Hollywood stars received more newspaper space in covering their marital meanderings than a number of the items chosen, but these were doubtless categorized by the editors as of interest in the feature field rather than being of earth-shaking importance.

Thus it is fairly safe to forecast that a year hence when the editors choose the ten top stories for 1960 world affairs, or perhaps "planetary" events will again comprise the bulk of the most important news.

We can only hope that most of the record will again be on the favorable side as it was during 1959.

Nelson A. Rockefeller

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the ninth in a series of articles written by Everett S. Allen, award-winning staff writer for the New Bedford, Mass., Standard-Times. It covers the complete career of New York Governor Nelson A. Rockefeller, bringing to light little known facts about the man mentioned as a Republican Presidential nomination possibility. Basil Brewer, Standard-Times publisher, is a frequent winter visitor here.)

By EVERETT S. ALLEN
Standard-Times Staff Writer
Secretary of State Hull on July 26, 1944, issued a bitter condemnation of Argentina, which still was aiding the Axis. Hull's attack made little sense to Nelson Rockefeller, who was aware the United States was purchasing $300,000,000 worth of goods yearly from Argentina and making Lend-Lease funds available to Britain to do the same.

ROCKEFELLER argued that if the United States really felt that way about the Government of Argentina, it ought to institute an economic boycott which would have disastrous effects on the economy of the country and probably result in the overthrow of the Peron Government.

The lack of U.S. action seemed clear evidence to other Latin-American nations that the United States really didn't think the Argentine situation was serious — or worse, that it was afraid of Argentina.

Deeply concerned, Rockefeller went to see Hull on Aug. 19. HE TOLD the secretary there appeared only two courses open to the United States — to apply economic sanctions jointly with all the allied nations, which would include termination of all purchases from Argentina, or to convene a conference of the inter-American ministers of foreign affairs and be guided by their joint decision.

Hull said he was familiar with the situation, that in order to supply Britain with foodstuffs now coming from Argentina, it would require further meat rationing in the United States, and the decision of the cabinet had been, because it was an election year, that such procedure was impossible.

ROCKEFELLER stated that while he was a Republican and new in government and recognized his political advice had no value, he thought it would benefit the Administration, rather than harm it, to take a firm stand. Hull said the decision had been made and there was nothing further that could be done.

ROCKEFELLER and his CIA associates were deeply depressed. His memo to Stettinius on the subject had gone unanswered for seven months, the secretary was immovable; apparently, all possibility of "working out anything" with the department had been exhausted. Rockefeller's decision to "set forth my feelings on the whole situation" in a letter to Hull was greeted with mixed reaction among his associates. They agreed with his views wholeheartedly, but felt the secretary was so bitter about the problem that such a letter might result in Rockefeller following Sumner Welles out of Government.

"I FELT, however," Rockefeller recalled, "that the situation was so important, I had no alternative. We put a great deal of thought into the memorandum . . ."

The memo said essentially that hemispheric unity was dependent on dynamic U. S. leadership, based on clear objectives. The present Argentine regime, it was suggested, was creating an influence aimed at destruction of this unity.

ROCKEFELLER repeated his recommendation for organizing the administration of inter-American affairs within the State Department, giving such a post "emphasis and authority."

He chided the Government for having supported establishment of the Inter-American Development Commission (which both Hull and Roosevelt praised publicly), but to which it now is giving consideration "only in a minor way."

TWO DAYS later, Rockefeller wrote an additional memo to the secretary emphasizing the Argentine situation.

He wrote, "The war has made abundantly clear the vital importance of hemisphere solidarity. If the inter-American structure is to be maintained as part of the post-war world organization, it is imperative that the Argentine problem be truly solved before the end of the war. The United States can stand firmly on principle without resorting to punitive measures; it must reassert more determined and vigorous leadership . . ."

"IN YOUR off - the - record discussions with the press, you have won the support, if not the acclaim of the public. However, this enthusiasm is not without danger. Should other Latin-American republics swing to Argentina, there is danger Latin-America might become the target of blind resentment in the United States, which would destroy the 'good - neighbor' policy. (President Hoover was the first to use this phrase with respect to hemisphere relations.)

"YOUR statement exposing the Argentine regime (that is, its pro-Nazi activities) has been twisted by Argentine censorship to appear to be an attack on Argentine sovereignty by the United States . . ."

Hull didn't answer Rockefeller's letters, nor did anyone else in the department. On Sept. 29, 1944 Roosevelt issued a public statement supporting the secretary of state's position, but significantly, distinguishing between the Argentine people and the Government; this was to be the key to the ultimate approach.

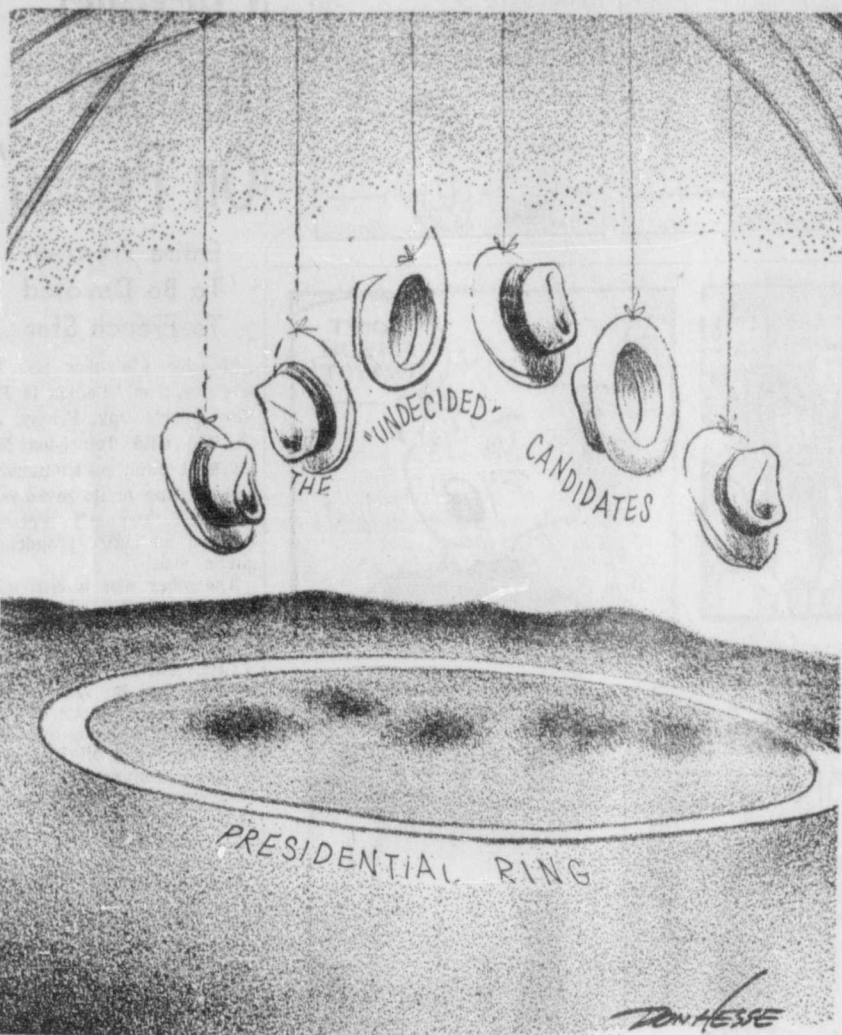

ON OCT. 27, General Peron, destined to be Argentina's president, asked the Pan-American Union for a meeting of ministers of foreign affairs to permit answering charges leveled by the United States. The request caught the State Department off guard; its officials wanted to get the other republics to turn down the request on the grounds the existing Argentine Government was not recognized by a majority of member nations. The other republics refused rightly, because non-recognition did not affect membership in the Pan-American Union.

ROCKEFELLER thought Peron's request presented a "God-given opportunity" to present the U. S. position for a full-dress hearing; he urged Stettinius in this direction, declaring, "If we do not accept this challenge, we will have endangered the very principles upon which the solidarity of the hemisphere is based."

But Secretary Hull, then ill (he resigned in November), was unshakable. He was able to have action on the request postponed, thus, in Rockefeller's opinion, paralyzing the effectiveness of the Pan-American Union and completely disrupting the function of the last remaining vehicle of the inter-American mechanisms.

STAN DELAPLANE:

Glory Hallelujah!

A friend of mine has called me to say the boss just dropped by and—

"He said I'm going to get a raise after the first of the year!" "Wonderful! How much?"

"WELL," HE SAID, "I figure at least $15. He can't do less than that. It ought to be $20." "Didn't you ask him?" I said. "You don't ASK about things like that," he said.

True. You don't ask. I wonder why?

A PAY RAISE is a wonderful thing (it should happen to you, too, and Heaven bless you this season). It is a wonderful thing. But the technique of receiving is painful and awkward.

In my friend's case it was easier. The boss was swinging on an office party and simply clapped him on the back and said: "You're up for a raise after the first."

USUALLY it is a much more serious affair. Both sides are aware of the holiness of this situation. They have a little stage fright.

"Jones," says the boss — he is sitting with the chair tilted back. Smoking a cigar, gazing out the window, eyes narrowed. A Captain-of-Industry look.

"Jones, we've been watching your work lately."

"YES, SIR." (The greaseball, Jones is thinking. He's been timing the coffee break. I wonder who finked on me.) "Jones, how long have you been with the company?"

"Five years, J. B." "A happy five years, I trust, Jones. A big, happy family here. With service to the public our first and foremost motto." "Absolutely first, J. B."

AS YOU CAN SEE, nothing has happened yet. Jones must suffer indignity and indecision. Is he about to be fired? Transferred? Tarred and feathered? "Jones," says the boss. "We have decided to give you a raise."

Now by this time our boy is so shaken he sinks to his knees and sobs on the wall-to-wall carpeting.

"BE WORTHY OF it, Jones," says the boss. "And — stop licking my hand, Jones. It is already chapped. Be worthy of it and remember, the bigger they are, the harder they fall."

Jones can only mumble a humble "Thank you, sir." He rushes out and sharpens his pencil twice as sharp.

DID HE ASK how MUCH raise? He did not.

It would be like taking the presents of the Three Wise Men down to the jewelers to have them assayed.

THAT IS THE WAY raises are passed out. I never had one passed out to me — I had to go in and fight like a demon. Most of the time I lost.

My misfortune was I was always working for companies on the brink of bankruptcy. At least that is what they said when I asked for a little till.

"We've got to face these times together," my owner said to me. "What times, sir?"

"DON'T YOU READ the financial pages? Money is very tight. I THINK we can get over the worst part of it this year. But it will be close. We want you to be happy. But— Money isn't everything, you know."

And he would shake his head sadly and a glint of tears shone in his cold and calculating eyes.

He was always nice about it. He let me do the real estate page that week and gave me a byline on the lead article.

P.S.—What a shiftless way to end the year!

"Celebrating at home isn't so bad, dear! . . . You certainly can't beat the price . . ."

MERRIMAN SMITH:

Free Press Shown

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Backstairs at the White House:

In the scurrying of President Eisenhower's recent international trip, an interesting and major aspect went virtually unnoticed by the American public. This was the fact that reporters were operating freely and without fear in many lands where such activity is exceedingly rare.

IN TURKEY, FOR example, there were reporters and editors in jail even while Eisenhower was being cheered in the streets of Ankara; jailed because they had printed things critical of or displeasing to the administration of President Bayar.

Yet, with the American President in town, reporters with him operated as they would in Washington or New York. If the traveling newsmen felt inclined to write a loud beef against the Turks, they were perfectly free to do so.

IN ALL presidential movement before crowds, White House press secretary James C. Hagerty insists, just short of an ugly diplomatic incident, that a car be placed in the procession for reporters of the two American press associations, the British and French news agencies. Then Hagerty suggests that if the local country has a press association, one of its men also be placed in the "wire car."

The reason behind this system: All of the reporters traveling with a president cannot ride at the head of the procession. This would require too many vehicles. So, the press associations are placed within a few car lengths of the chief executive so they can watch him — and the crowds — at all times.

IN THE UNITED STATES, this is standard procedure for the two American press associations. And abroad, Hagerty insists on the same right for the British and French agencies if they have men moving with Eisenhower.

When the President was in Spain last week, the presence of a carload of reporters in the parade a few feet away from Eisenhower and Generalissimo Francisco Franco, was about as history-making as the visit of the American President, himself.

NEVER BEFORE in history had a "journalist," as reporters are called in Europe, been permitted to move in procession close to the august Generalissimo. And Spain is another country where the newspapers simply do not speak poorly of the head of state — not if they want to stay in business.

While Eisenhower was in Spain, this reporter asked an official of the foreign office what would happen if a leading newspaper attacked Franco editorially for having Eisenhower as his guest. The reporter pointed out that only that morning, one of America's major publications had laid into Eisenhower for going to Madrid.

THE FOREIGN office official studied the lint on his lapel very closely and said, "It just isn't done here."

"But suppose it did happen?" "My dear fellow," he replied somewhat patiently, "yours is a difficult question. I can only answer that it wouldn't happen, it just wouldn't."

MUCH THE SAME atmosphere pervades the journalistic world in Iran and Tunisia. Personal criticism of the chief of state simply is not tolerated. And reporters are kept in their place, which is exceedingly low on the social, political and economic scale.

Even in France and Great Britain last September, the movement of reporters two or three car lengths behind President De Gaulle or Prime Minister Macmillan was simply unheard of until Hagerty came to town and insisted that at least a few newsmen always be in a spot where they could see and hear what was happening to the President.

Each time the "wire car" operates behind Eisenhower in a foreign country, it makes an indelible impression on the reporters of that nation. It plants just a few seeds of freedom of the press as Americans know it, and surely not all of these seeds fall on barren ground.

Remember When...

DECEMBER 31, 1949

Robert Hillery, Bill Carey and Jim Carlin climbed up to the Tramway site and signalled Robert's father, W. R. Hillery of their safe arrival with a big railroad fuse. In return, to acknowledge the signal, a bon fire was lighted by the father on the site of Cathedral City's Sunair Park.

Desert Hospital District directors have submitted formal bid for the easterly portion, 7.85 acres, of El Mirador properties which will be put on sale March 22 by the General Services Administration of the Federal government at San Francisco.

Local dentists Frank A. Purcell, R. G. Backstrom and E. K. Woods attended the Tri-County Dental Society meeting at Arrowhead Springs Hotel.

Dear Abby

...by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: I worked for many years as a hotel maid (please don't call us "chambermaids" — that went out with "chamberpots") and I never felt insulted when someone left a penny for me. I considered it good luck. Most of the time they left nothing. MAGGIE

DEAR ABBY: Here is some information for the person who wanted to know the significance of a traveler's leaving a penny behind. It is considered a very good omen to find a penny "face up." And it is a bad omen to find a dime "face down." A penny symbolizes good fortune, while a dime symbolizes loss of fortune. Perhaps this practice had its origin in China, as the Chinese place much meaning upon odd and even numbers. Sincerely, TOM YEE

DEAR ABBY: If the chambermaid thinks there is some significance in a penny being left by a hotel guest, please tell her to forget it. My husband frequently leaves a penny (and sometimes he leaves several pennies) on the hotel dresser because pennies weigh down his pockets and tear the linings. So if the person who left the lone penny was my husband, he left it there instead of throwing it in the waste paper basket. FROM TEXAS

DEAR ABBY: I never worked as a hotel maid but I did wait on tables in a hotel dining room. If a person left me a penny tip I would take it to mean they received good service and would like to tip me, but can't afford it. ST. LOUIS WOMAN

DEAR ABBY: I've never served the public, but believe you me, if anyone ever left a penny for me, I'd sure as heck try to catch up with him and give it back. POOR BUT NOT BROKE

DEAR ABBY: In 16 years of married life my husband has never bought me a birthday, anniversary or Christmas present. He just hands over his paycheck and tells me to pay all the bills and if there is anything left over to buy myself whatever I want.

I would cherish even a ten-cent card if he picked it out himself. I am sentimental and he isn't. How can I change him? FORGOTTEN settle an argument once and for all? Is it considered okay for a girl to put her make-up on and comb her hair at the table? There are four of us who want to know. DAPHNE, MARGE, NELL AND KATIE

DEAR GIRLS: It is "okay" to apply a little lipstick (quickly) while sitting at the table. But powdering the face and combing the hair—never!

What's your problem? For a personal reply, write to ABBY, care of The Desert Sun. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

COCKTAIL HOUR
At the Chi Chi

INDIO FAVORED AS COURT'S SITE

"If the judicial districts in Coachella Valley are consolidated into a Municipal Court, that court should be in Indio," Administrative Officer Robert T. Andersen declared this week, "whether it be in two departments or in one."

"I see no reason to double expenses by having one department in Indio and one in Palm Springs as recommended by the Grand Jury and the Palm Springs and Palm Desert Chambers of Commerce."

ANDERSEN SAID that as yet he has not undertaken any study of the recommendations for a Municipal Court. "There is no urgency," he declared, "as it is a matter for the 1961 legislature."

The Riverside County Grand

Jury adopted on Dec. 14 the identical resolution adopted by the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce on Dec. 3 recommending that justice courts in the Coachella Valley be consolidated into one Municipal Court with two departments, one in Indio and the other in Palm Springs.

THE GRAND JURY resolution and another one adopted by the Palm Desert Chamber of Commerce on Dec. 15, also identical to the Palm Springs C of C resolution, were received by the Board of Supervisors and referred to Administrative Officer Andersen. The Palm Springs C of C resolution was received by the Board of Supervisors Dec. 14, at which time it was referred to Andersen.

No letter accompanied the Grand Jury resolution and there was no explanation of the somewhat unusual procedure of adopting word for word a resolution adopted some weeks previously by another body.

Youths Sought In False Alarm

INDIO—There are some names the sheriff's office in Indio is interested in obtaining.

The names belong to several high school boys who allegedly broke glass in two fire alarms yesterday at the Indio High School gym, deputies said.

Equipment from two stations answered the spurious calls.

JAPANESE JUSTICE TOOK DOZEN YEARS, BUT SUSPECT HAPPY

MITO, Japan (UPI) — Twelve years ago in 1947, Shozo Ueno, 19, was ordered to appear before a summary court on suspicion of theft. He was allowed to return home.

In 1949, he again was called to the court to be fingerprinted. Again he was allowed to return home.

In 1954, he made another appearance before the court on the theft charge.

Five years passed without a word from the court.

Monday, the judge and prosecutor decided that Ueno, now 31, was innocent.

SAN BERNARDINO FOREST RE-OPENED

RIVERSIDE — The portions of San Bernardino National Forest which had been closed to public entry since July 1, were reopened Christmas Day. Don Bauer, forest supervisor, reported here.

The sections had been closed because of high fire hazard. Similar preventive restrictions placed on Los Padres, Angeles, Cleveland national forests were also lifted.

Bauer emphasized that permits are still required for fire building within the forest. Fire and camping permits are available without charge from any forestry ranger station. The county "no-shooting" ordinance remains in effect throughout the year.

The current storm marked the end of one of the most severe fire seasons in state history, the forestry service announced. Subnormal rainfall and dry gusty winds hampered fire-fighting efforts, and contributed to tree loss in central and northern California.

Most loss in the San Bernardino forest occurred in July, with 42 acres lost subsequently.

Oakland Woman Visiting Singers

By JEAN PATANE

Mrs. Lillian Hutchinson of Oakland is spending this holiday week with Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Singer at their home on West Veldt. The Singers drove to Glendora to spend the Christmas weekend at the home of their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Grove. Another daughter, Mrs. Shirley Proffitt and her son, Jimmy, from Walnut Park, and their nephew and family, Lt. and Mrs. Alden Hutchinson of Lakewood, joined the family Christmas Day. Mrs. Hutchinson plans on spending the New Year's weekend with her son in Lakewood.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Anderson were among the guests at the Casa Verde Apartments for Christmas and the holiday weekend.

Holiday week houseguests at the new home of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Gabbert are his business associate and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Elsen, who arrived Sunday from their home in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Angela De Biase arrived last Thursday to spend Christmas with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Buccino. Wednesday Mrs. Buccino drive her mother to her home in Hollywood and will return to Rancho Mirage Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Shaw and children, Larry and Gayle, of San Clemente, came Saturday to spend the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Nelson, owners of Nelson's Motel. Among the Christmas weekend guests at the motel were Mr. and Mrs. John Li Sjoberg and party from Santa Monica, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Hortenstein from Sonoma, Mr. and Mrs. R. Carlson, here from Minneapolis, Minn., Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Sprague of Phoenix, Ariz., Mr. and Mrs. J. Garrison from San Francisco, and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Messmer and daughter from Omaha, Neb.

Mr. and Mrs. John Vale spent the day before Christmas with his mother, Mrs. Florence Vale in Los Angeles, and Christmas Eve and Christmas Day with their son and daughter and families, returning to the desert Christmas night.

Among the Christmas weekend guests at Montecito Apartments were Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Moore from El Cajon, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Petty and family from Torrance, Mrs. Della Evanson, Mrs. Lizzie Evanson, Mrs. M. Engle and Mrs. Dora Forrest, here from Long Beach visiting relatives, and Mr. and Mrs. John W. Dawley and Mrs. Stanley Kemere of Bethlehem, Pa.

Including 'Christmas Opal'

Opal Exhibition On View at Desert Museum

By DR. C. E. SMITH
Director, Desert Museum

Up from the bed of an old desert sea, now the Virgin Valley region of Humboldt County, Nev., come precious opals in large numbers and great variety. Some fine examples of these, including the 2,799 carat (almost 20 ounces) "Christmas Opal" found on Christmas Eve, 1956, are now displayed at the Desert Museum.

"Opal: an amorphous form of hydrated quartz, containing from 3 to 13 per cent of water." This is a precise, but not too attractive way of describing what is sometimes nature's most beautiful of gem stones. More simply put, opal is a kind of quartz (the same stuff of most sand) which has no crystal structure and which carries finely divided or absorbed in it a variable amount of water.

KNOWN FROM ancient times, and highly prized by both Greeks and Romans, this October birthstone was formed from a jelly-like solution of silica in water. Underground water is often heated far above the boiling point but does not vaporize because of the great rock pressures bearing upon it.

In this superheated condition, water readily dissolves silica and other minerals from the enclosing rocks. When such mineral-laden waters ascend near the earth's surface where temperatures are lower and pressure is relieved, silica is often deposited in veins and fissures — veins and fissures of opal.

WHEREVER FOUND, opal is always a "young" mineral, probably the "youngest" of all the gem minerals. Young, that is, in terms of perhaps only a few rather than many millions of years; and it is usually found in regions of recent mountain-making activity, along with lava flows, ash beds and the like.

Every conceivable combination of colors is displayed by the opal. It may be colorless or of any shade or delicate tint or combination of red, yellow, green, blue, black or white.

THE INTRICATE display of colors that meets the eye, the change and ripple, the "fire" of the opal is due to some structural peculiarity within the stone itself. It seems probable that the stone contains a large number of extremely thin, bent, cracked and broken layers or plates which interfere with the reflection of light in much the same way that a prism breaks light into its rainbow spectrum.

Why not make a trip down to the museum to see just how beautiful uncut and unpolished opals can be?

Spellaza Named Chairman of DHS March of Dimes

DESERT HOT SPRINGS — Ted Spellaza has been appointed chairman of the Desert Hot Springs March of Dimes campaign, which will begin Jan. 1. Joe Rice, Riverside County sheriff and general county chairman for the MOD announced today.

Spellaza succeeds Mrs. Betty Lukowski, who resigned after three years service as chairman, because of illness. Mrs. Lukowski will remain as an adviser to the local campaign.

Tentative goal of the DHS drive will be $700. Envelopes will be mailed residents, and coin cards and canisters will be placed in downtown business places.

An intensified solicitation will be made on Jan. 30, birthday of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt, who was a major supporter of the early March of Dimes drives. Details of the Jan. 30 activities will be announced later.

First Returns
HARTFORD, Conn. (UPI) — City treasurer John J. Mahon, who was unopposed in a recent election, received a telephone call five minutes after the polls opened. The caller said, "Bud, you're in. I just voted for you."
